

1,000 EXPECTED AT CONVENTION OF USWV IN JUNE

More than 1,000 delegates and guests to the 40th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Department of the United Spanish War Veterans, its auxiliary and the Sons of the USWV are expected to attend the sessions here next month. George S. Rightmyer, general chairman of the committee in charge, said today.

Mr. Rightmyer also announced the program for the sessions which will be held June 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14. Registration of delegates will begin at 8 o'clock on the morning of June 10 at the Hotel Gettysburg. At 1 p. m. an automobile caravan will move to Scotland school for the graduation exercises there.

Church Services

Morning services in all churches will open the sessions Sunday, June 11. At 2 o'clock that afternoon the annual parade will be held.

Scheduled to take part in the parade so far are the Boys Band of Scotland school, the Philadelphia Drum Corps of the USWV and the Drum Corps of Pittsburgh which includes a number of members over 70 years of age.

The Council or Administration will meet at 5 p. m. followed by the annual dinner of the council at the Hotel Gettysburg at 6 o'clock. A joint memorial service in St. James Lutheran church with services in charge of Department Commander Dr. Charles I. Shaffer and Auxiliary Department President Ellen R. Hayk will be held at 8 p. m.

Monday June 12 a joint informal session will be held at 9:30 a. m. with an address of welcome by Burgess Fred Pfeiffer at St. James Lutheran church. Department Auxiliary Patriotic Instructor Cora Mahwinney will present a flag to Gettysburg and greetings will be presented by Mares Sherman, president of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce and from VFW, American Legion and Auxiliary spokesmen.

Formal Opening

The convention will be formally opened at the court house at 1 p. m. June 12 with a business session, appointment of committees and nomination of officers. The annual banquet is scheduled for 6 p. m. at St. James' church and a grand ball will be held at 9 p. m. at the Hotel Gettysburg annex.

Activities scheduled for Tuesday include: 9:30 a. m. business session, address, reports of committees and election of officers. Selection of convention city and installation of officers is scheduled for 2 p. m.

Wednesday morning, June 14, the last business session will be held starting at 9:30 a. m.

The Auxiliary program follows the same schedule with a few exceptions. Registration of delegates is scheduled for 7 p. m. June 10 at the Hotel Gettysburg and again from 1 to 2 p. m. Sunday, June 11. The finance and executive committees will meet from 4 to 4:30 p. m. June 11 and the department council of administration will meet at 9:30 p. m. at the Hotel Gettysburg.

Auxiliary Banquet

Sessions on Monday, June 12, will include registration at St. James Lutheran church at 8 a. m.; the joint meeting, formal opening of the Auxiliary convention at 1:30 p. m. by Department Chief of Staff Ella G. Dillon. The sessions June 13 include: 9 a. m. business session, nomination of officers; 2 p. m., exemplification of ritual; 6 p. m., banquet of Past Department Presidents club at Hotel Gettysburg.

The program closes June 14 with department aides' breakfast at 7:30 a. m.; election of officers at 9:30 a. m. and installation of officers at 2 p. m.

The annual meetings of the Military Order of Serpent, Province of Pennsylvania, and the Military Order of The Lizards, "fun" organizations of the USWV, are scheduled for Tuesday, June 12, at the American Legion building. The Order of Serpents will hold a bean feed at the Legion home at 6 p. m. June 13 and the annual election and installation of officers at 7:30 p. m. on that day. The Lizards are scheduled to stage a breakfast at 7:30 a. m. June 13. The grand convocation is scheduled for 7 p. m. at the Legion home.

Glenn L. Slaybaugh In Overseas Plant

(Special To The Times)

An Air Service Command Depot (Somewhere in England)—Private First Class Glenn L. Slaybaugh, son of Mrs. Marks W. Slaybaugh of Gardner, is now serving as an aircraft sheet metal man in the metal manufacturing section of this busy aircraft repair depot.

He is assigned to the sheet metal department, where metals of all kinds are fabricated into needed parts for airplane repairs and modifications.

Private Slaybaugh joined the service April 12, 1943. He has been serving overseas since last fall.

Gets 30 Days For Refusing To Fight Fire

Charged with refusing to help fight a forest fire in Hamilton township on Thursday, May 4, Harry Carbaugh, aged about 22, Fayetteville R. D., was arrested Saturday by Private Leon R. Geiger, state policeman stationed at South Mountain, and Constable L. D. Kauffman, a fire warden.

Arraigned before Justice of the Peace John H. Beshore, Carbaugh was quoted as admitting he had refused to obey the orders of Officer Geiger when he was directed to help battle a blaze on the east slopes of the South Mountain. He said he had refused because he did not want to "spoil my good clothes."

The Justice imposed a $50 fine. In default of payment of the fine, Carbaugh was sent to jail for 30 days.

PLAN NEW UNIT OF STUDY FOR AG, STUDENTS

Details of a unit of study to be offered vocational agricultural students in Adams, Cumberland and Perry counties next year on "Co-operatives" as a phase of consumer education were the subject of a recent conference between Dr. Robert A. Bream, assistant county superintendent of schools; Mrs. Bream and Richard C. Lighter, county vocational education adviser, and National Education Association officials at Washington, D. C.

The local educators went to Washington last Friday at the invitation of Dr. Thomas H. Briggs, director for the NEA of a three-year study on consumer education. They conferred with him and his assistant, Dr. Fred T. Wilhelm. Doctor Bream has a special interest in consumer education work. His thesis leading to his doctorate last year was on that subject.

Under NEA Guidance

The program of study to be developed in this county will be under the direction of Dr. and Mrs. Bream and Mr. Lighter and the vocational agriculture teachers.

The unit of study on cooperatives is one of 50 being produced and developed under NEA guidance. It is being financed by the Better Business Bureau.

At Friday's meeting the educators went over a broad outline for the unit. In a few weeks, the local schoolmen will submit a complete outline of the course and early next fall with the 14 teachers involved in the three counties will complete the unit and put it into use. The new course of study is related to a project in cooperatives carried on last year by the Ardenville, Biglerville and East Berlin schools in this county in which the schools used and criticized one of the earlier study units on consumer education.

Annual Meeting Of USO Next Monday

The Adams county USO will hold its annual meeting next Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock at the YWCA building with presentation of annual reports and election of the board of directors to be included in the business session.

All Adams county organizations are invited to send representatives to the meeting which is open to the public.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Carlson, Gettysburg R. 2, announce the birth of a daughter at the Warner hospital Sunday.

Survives Nazi Firing Squad

At a Partisan Hospital in Italy, May 8 (Delayed) (AP)—Djuro Miljusevic, 31-year-old Yugoslav Partisan who faced a German firing squad and stopped 25 bullets including one through his face, can almost handle a rifle again.

Miljusevic said twenty-four machine-gun slugs tore into his chest and shoulders and broke his right arm in three places. A German who saw him move then fired a revolver bullet into his head.

WILL DEDICATE H. S. HONOR ROLL HERE ON MAY 29

Dedication of a service honor roll containing the names of alumni in the armed forces will be a feature of the annual meeting of the Alumni Association of Gettysburg high school in the high school gymnasium May 29, it was announced today by Herbert Raymond, association president.

Dr. Robert A. Bream, assistant county superintendent of schools, will deliver the dedicatory address and present the honor roll to the high school. Gettysburg Superintendent of Schools Lloyd C. Keefe will accept the roll for the school. Prof. Robert D. Fidler will be in charge of the dedicatory program.

Constructed under the joint sponsorship of the high school student council and the alumni association, the roll of honor will include approximately 600 names of men and women who attended high school and are now in the armed forces.

Entertainment, Dancing

The program will also include entertainment, dancing and a short business session.

Hugh C. McInnery, chairman of the Alumni Awards committee will present the annual scholastic awards. Carl A. Menchey, chairman of the nominating committee will present his report and the president will accept the 1944 year-book from the staff of the Cannon-Ald high school annual publication.

A guard of honor comprising graduates of the high school who are now members of the American Legion will take part in the honor roll dedicatory exercises.

Zel Smith's orchestra, of Waynesboro, which has appeared at a number of student functions and other dances in this section, will provide music for the dancing program.

Admission to the dance, including tax, will be 60 cents. President Raymond said.

"Because of the paper shortage and lack of addresses for some alumni, we unfortunately were not able to send invitations to everyone who is an alumnus of the high school," President Raymond said. "However we want those members who were not included in the list to whom letters of invitation were sent to consider this their invitation to come. We want everyone who possibly can to attend and enjoy the annual get-together."

"Some members who have not attended the alumni association meetings for years may hesitate to come because they feel they may be asked to pay up all back dues. However, I wish to assure them now there are no back dues to be paid," the association president asserted.

DEANERY MEET NEXT SUNDAY

The Conewago Deanery Council of the National Council of Catholic Women will hold its annual meeting next Sunday afternoon in St. Joseph's parish hall, Bonneauville. The business session will begin at 1:30 o'clock and will be followed by a Board meeting. Election of officers will be held at the open meeting, with delegates representing the following parishes: St. Joseph's, Bonneauville; Sacred Heart of Jesus; Conewago Chapel; Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Fairfield; St. Francis Xavier, Gettysburg; St. Aloysius, Littlestown; Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, McSherrytown; Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, New Oxford, and St. Ignatius, Orrtanna.

Guests at the open meeting will include Mrs. Paul Sullivan, President of the Harrisburg Diocesan Council, NCCW; Mrs. William Jacoby, Diocesan Chairman of NCCW-USO; Miss Kathryn McCarthy, Diocesan Chairman of Youth; all of Mount Carmel. The very Rev. John P. O'Donnell, Dean of the Conewago Deanery, will deliver an address. There will be a twenty minute sound movie in technicolor, a travelogue to Mexico's Eastern province, Yucatan. There will also be the yearly activities reports from the eight parishes. An invitation is extended to all women of the Deanery to attend this meeting.

His wife, Mrs. Frances G. Lady, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milby, live at York Springs.

After the evening meal, Mr. Fox left the house about 6 o'clock to back the tractor into a shed. Apparently Ruth Jean followed him and while the father watched on one side of the machine where a neighbor boy stood, the other rear wheel struck and fatally injured his youngest child. He did not know the child had left the house until he saw her body lying on the ground in front of the tractor. She died instantly.

Rev. Nevin Smith Graduation Speaker

"Pillars of Freedom" will be the subject of the address to be given this evening at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Nevin E. Smith, Hanover, before members of the graduation class of Fairfield high school at exercises in the Fairfield community hall.

"Our Democratic Creed" will be the theme of the graduation exercises. A class of 17 will receive diplomas.

Recent Bride

Mrs. James Daniel Doyle, the former Patricia Jean Myers of Gettysburg, whose wedding to Lt. Doyle took place April 5 in New York city. A graduate of the Gettysburg high school and the West Chester State Teachers' college, she is physical education instructor at William Penn Senior high school in York. Lt. Doyle's home is in Worcester, Mass.

MISS KOCH IS "MAY QUEEN"

Miss Mary Louise Koch, Hazleton, a senior at Gettysburg college, was crowned May Queen Saturday afternoon at the annual May Day exercises in Stahley Gardens on the Woman's Division campus which this year combined campus observance of Mother's Day and Father's Day.

A crowd estimated at more than 350 persons saw Miss Kathleen Finchbaugh, of York, last year's May Queen at the college, crown her successor. Miss Margaret Harvey, Camp Hill, was the queen's maid of honor. Her court, which had been announced previously, included Miss Jane Spangler, freshman, of near Gettysburg. Queen's attendants included Sigie Wagnild and Carol Sue Heiges, East Lincoln avenue.

Moving exercises, the May Pole dance and a ceremony in which the retiring women's student council headed by Miss Beatrice Pyle, turned over campus affairs to the incoming council led by Miss Nancy Irie were included in the afternoon's program.

In the evening, in the gymnasium, eight women's groups on the campus presented skits with first prize going to that given by the Chi Omega sorority. First honorable mention went to Jackson Hall. Activity awards were distributed and the scholarship cup was won by the Delta Gamma group.

COUNTY OFFICER GIVEN AIR MEDAL

(Special To The Times)

An Eighth AAF Bomber Station, England, May 15—Second Lieutenant Donald F. Lady, a pilot on a B-17 Flying Fortress has been decorated with the Air Medal.

The citation which accompanied the presentation of the decoration read:

"For exceptionally meritorious achievement while participating in five separate bomber combat missions over Germany and enemy occupied Europe. The courage, skill and coolness displayed by Lieutenant Lady on these occasions reflect great credit upon himself and the Armed Forces of the United States."

Lieutenant Lady was graduated from the Biglerville high school in 1936, where he played on the football team. He then attended Gettysburg college from which he was graduated in 1940.

His wife, Mrs. Frances G. Lady, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milby, live at York Springs.

17- Months Old Girl Crushed To Death Under Tractor Wheel

Ruth Jean Fox, 17-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Fox, Franklin township, was fatally injured Saturday evening at the Fox home near Cashtown when her skull was crushed under a rear wheel of a farm tractor operated by her father.

After the evening meal, Mr. Fox left the house about 6 o'clock to back the tractor into a shed. Apparently Ruth Jean followed him and while the father watched on one side of the machine where a neighbor boy stood, the other rear wheel struck and fatally injured his youngest child. He did not know the child had left the house until he saw her body lying on the ground in front of the tractor. She died instantly.

Dr. C. G. Crist, the county coroner, issued the death certificate after an investigation. He attributed death to accidental causes.

REV. H. S. FOX GIVES MOTHERS' DAY ADDRESS

"A Maternal Tribute" was the subject of the Mothers' Day address given by the Rev. Howard Schley Fox, pastor of Trinity Evangelical Reformed church, at the annual services held Sunday evening at the Elks home on York street.

John W. Fox, exalted ruler, presided and conducted the ritualistic part of the services assisted by other officers. "A Tribute to Mother" was given by Fred G. Pfeiffer.

Eric H. Sigmar, a student at Gettysburg college sang "Mother March," "When You Come Home," and "Going Home." Mrs. Paul Kinsey played the accompaniments. In his address the Rev. Mr. Fox said:

"For most of us it is impossible to appraise the power and the worth of our mother's life to us. She has entered so intimately and so forcefully into our very being from the moment of our birth until now that only God Himself may know how large and full is the part which she has had in making us what we are."

Love Deathless

A mother's love is inextinguishable and deathless. It will follow the thief to the prison and the murderer to the gallows. It is the hand of a mother's love that has inscribed many a name in the nation's hall of fame. For, the mother in her office holds the key of the soul and she it is who stamps the coin of character.

"It is our homes that have made America queen of the Nations."

"If we could find the names of all those good men and women who by their noble lives have helped and brightened the lives of others, we would discover the true Westminster Abbey and the noblest Hall of Fame. Pre-eminent among them must stand the names of the faithful little mothers of men, and on whom rest the destiny of nations and the future of the world."

"No Richer Gift"

"Next to the love of God is the true mother's love."

"In the hallowed memories of this day let us remember there are no richer gifts to posterity than the children of a godly mother. To be such a mother is to be a saint in the home, a parlor in the nation."

The committee in charge of arrangements included: S. Richard Eisenhart, Glenn L. Bream, Charles Pitzer and Harry Bumbaugh.

CHARGED WITH FIRING RIFLE

An altercation last Wednesday morning about 1 o'clock on Third street in Midway during the course of which a shotgun was discharged resulted Saturday in the arrest of Floyd W. Funkhouser, 29, Hanover, on charges of disorderly conduct and malicious mischief to property.

The charges were laid before Justice of the Peace L. G. Kuhn, Conewago township, by Pvt. Robert Dietrich of the Gettysburg substation of the state police who also made the arrest.

Funkhouser, who told the officer he did not know the name of the other person involved in the fracas, paid a $5 fine and the costs on the disorderly conduct count and entered a plea of guilty on the other charge on which he was released Saturday evening under $300 bail for court.

The officer said the charge from the shotgun peppered the front of the home of Felix Funk, Midway. One window was broken but no one was hurt. Funk estimated that the lead shot caused about $50 damage to his property.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Martin and daughter, Mary Lou, Springs avenue, spent Sunday in Harrisburg with friends and relatives.

New French Army Advances 7 Miles On Italian Front

Blood Plasma Saves Lives On Italian Front

By GEORGE TUCKER

At the Eight Evacuation Hospital, Fifth Army Front, Italy, May 15 (AP) — This is the shock ward of an emergency hospital where blood plasma is stacked like cordwood.

All through the day and night litter bearers have come in from the environs around Santa Maria Infante which our infantry re-took yesterday after the Germans had kicked us out.

The litter bearers place the wounded on saw horses, like carpenters use, and when every inch of space is crowded they spill over into adjoining wards.

Saved From Death

"When a man is hit he goes 'in shock.' His blood pressure falls and his pulsebeat increases. Unless he can be brought out of the shock he can't survive an operation, and that is where plasma comes in."

You can walk down the lengthening rows of white faces and wonder how they can pull through. Plasma does it. I saw a man from Ohio take 10 units of plasma and come back from the fluttery edges of death. Color flooded back into his face and his pulse fell almost to normal. Recovery now is almost certain.

It is startling the way infantrymen can bear in silence almost anything the battle field can throw at them. It humbles you to stand amid 100 men whose bodies have been shattered and not hear one single word of complaint. They just lie there waiting their turn to be taken into the operating rooms.

Smile, Though Hurt

You walk down long rows of litters and look at the dogtags which give blood types and tell where they are from — Buffalo, Detroit, Decatur, Ala.; Jersey City, Omaha, Lowell, Mass.

This man has a shattered knee. The next is a sniper from Atlanta, Ga., who has shell fragments in his neck and chest.

Asked about their wounds, they'll smile, and whisper now they got them.

"You see," whispered one, "the captain told me to take four men and flank a machine gun nest, and we flanked and got it with grenades. Then they threw mortars on us and before I could get my men into cover it got me. It didn't hurt. I didn't feel anything. It just knocked and when I tried to get up I couldn't. But I was pretty lucky. I was there only two hours before they picked me up."

Sometimes a heart-breaking choice must be made between a man who has no chance and another whom surgery might save.

Tireless Workers

A lieutenant seemed perfectly calm and looked up with wide clear eyes, but his spinal cord had been severed and nothing human hands could do would make him whole again. Next to him was a man who been hit hard through the chest. But he still had a chance, and so they took him.

I followed this case through surgery, where eight teams were working around the clock driving themselves until their eyes were hollow. But they stood there, hour after hour, cheating death making men whole again. Men like Lt. Col. Cato Drash, who taught surgery at the University of Virginia and nurses like Lt. Ruth Eastman of Pulaski, Va., manage to keep the work of saving lives running smoothly in the midst of the terrible confusion.

Accuse Motorist Of Code Violations

Charges of driving too fast for conditions in center square and failing to stop at the signal of an officer were filed this morning by Borough Officer Clark Staley before Justice of the Peace John H. Beshore against Edgar L. Shellman, 19, East Berlin R. 2.

The officer said Shellman entered the square from York street Sunday evening at 9:45 o'clock and "nearly upset" as he rounded the circle disregarding four blasts on the policeman's whistle. Officer Staley gave chase in the police car and brought the Shellman car to a stop on West High street near the Catholic church.

Allied Headquarters, Naples, May 15 (AP)—French troops have advanced as much as seven miles from the take-off point on the Fifth Army right wing in the all-out Allied offensive and captured the important town of Ausonia, creating a "significant breach" in the Germans' Gustav line in southern Italy, Allied headquarters announced today.

The Americans have smashed the enemy out of Santa Maria Infante and San Pietro on the lower Garigliano river and taken vital mountain positions on both sides of the Ausente river.

Americans Advance Four Miles

The French have reached the hills dominating San Giorgio, equally as important as Ausonia.

The Americans are pressing an attack on Spigno, showing they have driven at least four miles north and west of Minturno.

Ausonia is six and a half miles north of Minturno and San Grigorio seven miles southwest of Cassino and one mile south of the Liri river.

Farther to the north, the big Allied offensive also gained, with the British and Indians deepening their Rapido river bridgehead to at least 2,000 yards—more than a mile—and sending over great numbers of tanks to exploit this attack into the Liri valley—a direct road to Rome.

More Than 2,000 Prisoners Captured

More than 2,000 prisoners already have streamed back into Allied cages and others were coming in constantly as the attacks progressed.

Very heavy casualties have been inflicted along the whole front and hard fighting continues everywhere up and down the line of attack, an Allied communique said.

The German 71st division, which was entirely reconstituted after its original was wiped out at Stalingrad, bore the brunt of the Fifth Army attack and lost over 1,200 men in prisoners alone, including six battalion commanders.

The whole frontline defenses of this division have been overturned.

After a bitter and bloody fight the Americans drove the Nazis out of the town of Santa Maria Infante at noon yesterday, pushed on to a road junction northeast of the town and fanned out to capture the village of San Pietro and the nearby hills, Monte Cerri and Monte Bracchi on either side of the Ausente river. Then they continued the attack on Spigno.

BULLETINS

By W. W. HERCHER

London, May 15 (AP)—American Flying Fortresses and Liberators attacked German invasion defenses in the Pas de Calais area nearest Britain today in the 31st consecutive day of the great aerial offensive, after a night in which German bombers sharply attacked the British coast.

No American bomber was lost today but one of the accompanying Mustangs was missing. It fell to anti-aircraft fire since the U. S. communique said no German plane was sighted.

A maximum of 250 fortresses and Liberators under protection of Eighth Air Force Mustangs pounded military installations in France, following up a night attack on Cologne by British Mosquito bombers, and a weekend of activity which saw the historic Brenner Pass, main supply line for the Nazis in Italy, virtually sealed up.

By HENRY C. CASSIDY

Moscow, May 15 (AP)—Russian armies are believed mauling for a summer offensive surpassing any blow yet struck on the eastern front.

The spring lull which started in mid-April continued today and no fresh military dispatches were published from the front.

But there were multiplying signs of the coming rush. Russian bombers, for instance, struck at the rail center of Brest Litovsk (in old Poland) starting 30 fires, and also attacked Nazi bases at Polotsk in White Russia and Narva in the Estonian republic.

Pravda reported that a new Yak fighter plane was going into mass production. This is a modified version of the craft designed by Gen. Alexander Yakovlev, which proved the fastest on the Russian front. Other plane and arms plants are working top speed, building up supplies for the offensive.

HOT WEEK-END

Breezes today brought relief after one of the hottest week-ends so far this year. Saturday's official high in Gettysburg was 87 degrees while Sunday's maximum reading was 85. At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon the mercury stood at 81½ degrees. Sunday night's low was 52 degrees.

The French in the upper Garigliano area approached the Liri river in the vicinity of San Giorgio after occupying a number of dominating heights. Ausonia, in the valley connecting the Liri valley with the sea, fell yesterday afternoon.

French Seize Heights

In quick succession the embattled French won 2,500-foot Monte Rinchiuso and 1,900-foot Colle Agrioglio and occupied the towns of San Andrea and San Ambrogio and mopped up San Appollinare.

PLAN NEW UNIT
OF STUDY FOR
AG, STUDENTS

Details of a unit of study to be offered vocational agricultural students in Adams, Cumberland and Perry counties next year on "Co-operatives" as a phase of consumer education were the subject of a recent conference between Dr. Robert A. Bream, assistant county superintendent of schools; Mrs. Bream and Richard C. Lighter, county vocational education adviser, and National Education Association officials at Washington, D. C.

The local educators went to Washington last Friday at the invitation of Dr. Thomas H. Briggs, director for the NEA of a three-year study on consumer education. They conferred with him and his assistant, Dr. Fred T. Wilhelm. Doctor Bream has a special interest in consumer education work. His thesis leading to his doctorate last year was on that subject.

The program of study to be developed in this county will be under the direction of Dr. and Mrs. Bream and Mr. Lighter and the vocational agriculture teachers.

The unit of study on cooperatives is one of 50 being produced and developed under NEA guidance. It is being financed by the Better Business Bureau.

At Friday's meeting the educators went over a broad outline for the unit. In a few weeks, the local schoolmen will submit a complete outline of the course and early next fall with the 14 teachers involved in the three counties will complete the unit and put it into use. The new course of study is related to a project in cooperatives carried on last year by the Ardenville, Biglerville and East Berlin schools in this county in which the schools used and criticized one of the earlier study units on consumer education.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Carlson, Gettysburg R. 2, announce the birth of a daughter at the Warner hospital Sunday.

Survives Nazi
Firing Squad

At a Partisan Hospital in Italy, May 8 (Delayed) (AP)—Djuro Miljusevic, 31-year-old Yugoslav Partisan who faced a German firing squad and stopped 25 bullets including one through his face, can almost handle a rifle again.

Miljusevic said twenty-four machine-gun slugs tore into his chest and shoulders and broke his right arm in three places. A German who saw him move then fired a revolver bullet into his head.

The bullet entered near his left ear and emerged under his left eye, but after the Germans left he managed somehow to make his way to the home of friends. Later he was brought to a hospital here where he is now able to walk around and is regaining the use of his arm.

WILL DEDICATE
H. S. HONOR ROLL
HERE ON MAY 29

Dedication of a service honor roll containing the names of alumni in the armed forces will be a feature of the annual meeting of the Alumni Association of Gettysburg high school in the high school gymnasium May 29, it was announced today by Herbert Raymond, association president.

Dr. Robert A. Bream, assistant county superintendent of schools, will deliver the dedicatory address and present the honor roll to the high school. Gettysburg Superintendent of Schools Lloyd C. Keefe will accept the roll for the school. Prof. Robert D. Fidler will be in charge of the dedicatory program.

Constructed under the joint sponsorship of the high school student council and the alumni association, the roll of honor will include approximately 600 names of men and women who attended high school and are now in the armed forces.

Entertainment, Dancing

The program will also include entertainment, dancing and a short business session.

Hugh C. McInerney, chairman of the Alumni Awards committee will present the annual scholastic awards. Carl A. Menchey, chairman of the nominating committee will present his report and the president will accept the 1944 year-book from the staff of the Cannon-Aid, high school annual publication.

A guard of honor comprising graduates of the high school who are now members of the American Legion will take part in the honor roll dedicatory exercises.

Zel Smith's orchestra, of Waynesboro, which has appeared at a number of student functions and other dances in this section, will provide music for the dancing program.

Admission to the dance, including tax, will be 60 cents, President Raymond said.

"Because of the paper shortage and lack of addresses for some alumni, we unfortunately were not able to send invitations to everyone who is an alumnus of the high school," President Raymond said, "however we want those members who were not included in the list to whom letters of invitation were sent to consider this their invitation to come. We want everyone who possibly can to attend and enjoy the annual get-together."

"Some members who have not attended the alumni association meetings for years may hesitate to come because they feel they may be asked to pay up all back dues. However, I wish to assure them now there are no back dues to be paid," the association president asserted.

DEANERY MEET
NEXT SUNDAY

The Conewago Deanery Council of the National Council of Catholic Women will hold its annual meeting next Sunday afternoon in St. Joseph's parish hall, Bonneauville. The business session will begin at 1:30 o'clock and will be followed by a Board meeting. Election of officers will be held at the open meeting, with delegates representing the following parishes in the Deanery participating: St. Joseph's, Bonneauville; Sacred Heart of Jesus, Conewago Chapel; Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Fairfield; St. Francis Xavier, Gettysburg; St. Aloysius, Littlestown; Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, McSherrytown; Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, New Oxford, and St. Ignatius, Orrtanna.

Guests at the open meeting will include Mrs. Paul Sullivan, President of the Harrisburg Diocesan Council, NCCW; Mrs. William Jacoby, Diocesan Chairman of NCCW; Miss Kathryn McCarthy, Diocesan Chairman of Youth; all of Mount Carmel. The very Rev. John F. O'Donnell, Dean of the Conewago Deanery, will deliver an address. There will be a twenty minute sound movie in technicolor, a travelogue to Mexico's Eastern province, Yucatan. There will also be the yearly activities reports from the eight parishes. An invitation is extended to all women of the Deanery to attend this meeting.

Rev. Nevin Smith
Graduation Speaker

"Pillars of Freedom" will be the subject of the address to be given this evening at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Nevin E. Smith, Hanover, before members of the graduation class of Fairfield high school at exercises in the Fairfield community hall.

"Our Democratic Creed" will be the theme of the graduation exercises. A class of 17 will receive diplomas.

Recent Bride

Mrs. James Daniel Doyle, the former Patricia Jean Myers of Gettysburg, whose wedding to Lt. Doyle took place April 5 in New York city. A graduate of the Gettysburg high school and the West Chester State Teachers' college, she is physical education instructor at William Penn Senior high school in York. Lt. Doyle's home is in Worcester, Mass.

MISS KOCH IS
"MAY QUEEN"

Miss Mary Louise Koch, Hazleton, a senior at Gettysburg college, was crowned May Queen Saturday afternoon at the annual May Day exercises in Stahley Gardens on the Woman's Division campus which this year combined campus observance of Mother's Day and Father's Day.

A crowd estimated at more than 350 persons saw Miss Kathleen Flinchbaugh, of York, last year's May queen at the college, crown her successor. Miss Margaret Harvey, Camp Hill, was the queen's maid of honor. Her court, which had been announced previously, included Miss Jane Spangler, freshman, of near Gettysburg. Queen's attendants included Sigle Wagnild and Carol Sue Heiges, East Lincoln avenue.

Moving-up exercises, the May Pole dance and a ceremony in which the retiring women's student council headed by Miss Beatrice Pyle, turned over campus affairs to the incoming council led by Miss Nancy Irie were included in the afternoon's program.

In the evening, in the gymnasium, eight women's groups on the campus presented skits with first prize going to that given by the Chi Omega sorority. First honorable mention went to Jackson Hall. Activity awards were distributed and the scholarship cup was won by the Delta Gamma group.

COUNTY OFFICER
GIVEN AIR MEDAL

(Special To The Times)
An Eighth AAF Bomber Station, England, May 15—Second Lieutenant Donald F. Lady, a pilot on a B-17 Flying Fortress has been decorated with the Air Medal.

The citation which accompanied the presentation of the decoration read:

"For exceptionally meritorious achievement while participating in five separate bomber combat missions over Germany and enemy occupied Europe. The courage, skill and coolness displayed by Lieutenant Lady on these occasions reflect great credit upon himself and the Armed Forces of the United States."

Lieutenant Lady was graduated from the Biglerville high school in 1936, where he played on the football team. He then attended Gettysburg college from which he was graduated in 1940.

His wife, Mrs. Frances G. Lady, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton M. Lady, live at York Springs.

17- Months Old Girl Crushed
To Death Under Tractor Wheel

Ruth Jean Fox, 17-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grayson Fox, Franklin township, was fatally injured Saturday evening at the Fox home near Cashtown when her skull was crushed under a rear wheel of a farm tractor operated by her father.

After the evening meal, Mr. Fox left the house about 6 o'clock to back the tractor into a shed. Apparently Ruth Jean followed him and while the father watched on one side of the machine where a neighbor boy stood, the other rear wheel struck and fatally injured the youngest child. He did not know the child had left the house until he saw her body lying on the ground in front of the tractor. She died instantly.

Dr. C. G. Crist, the county coroner, issued the death certificate after an investigation. He attributed death to accidental causes.

REV. H. S. FOX
GIVES MOTHERS'
DAY ADDRESS

"A Maternal Tribute" was the subject of the Mothers' Day address given by the Rev. Howard Schley Fox, pastor of Trinity Evangelical Reformed church, at the annual services held Sunday evening at the Elks home on York street.

John W. Fox, exalted ruler, presided and conducted the ritualistic part of the services assisted by other officers. "A Tribute to Mother" was given by Fred G. Pfeffer.

Eric H. Sigmar, a student at Gettysburg college sang "Mother Macchree," "When You Come Home," and "Going Home." Mrs. Paul Kinsey played the accompaniments.

In his address the Rev. Mr. Fox said:

"For most of us it is impossible to appraise the power and the worth of our mother's life to us. She has entered so intimately and so forcefully into our very being from the moment of our birth until now that only God Himself may know how large and full is the part which she has had in making us what we are."

Love Deathless

A mother's love is inexhaustible and deathless. It will follow the thief to the prison and the murderer to the gallows. It is the hand of a mother's love that has inscribed many a name in the nation's hall of fame. For, the mother in her office holds the key of the soul and she it is who stamps the coin of character.

"It is our homes that have made America queen of the Nations."

"If we could find the names of all those good men and women who by their noble lives have helped and brightened the lives of others, we would discover the true Westminster Abbey and the noblest Hall of Fame. Pre-eminent among them must stand the names of the faithful little mothers of men, and on whom rest the destiny of nations and the future of the world."

No Richer Gift

"Next to the love of God is the true mother's love."

"In the hallowed memories of this day let us remember there are no richer gifts to posterity than the children of a godly mother. To be such a mother is to be a saint in the home, a part in the nation."

The committee in charge of arrangements included S. Richard Eisenhart, Glenn L. Bream, Charles Pitzer and Harry Bumbaugh.

CHARGED WITH FIRING RIFLE

An altercation last Wednesday morning about 1 o'clock on Third street in Midway during the course of which a shotgun was discharged resulted Saturday in the arrest of Floyd W. Funkhouser, 29, Hanover, on charges of disorderly conduct and malicious mischief to property.

The charges were laid before Justice of the Peace L. G. Kuhn, Conewago township, by Pvt. Robert Dietrich of the Gettysburg substation of the state police who also made the arrest.

Funkhouser, who told the officer he did not know the name of the other person involved in the fracas, paid a $5 fine and the costs on the disorderly conduct count and entered a plea of guilty on the other charge on which he was released Saturday evening under $300 bail for court.

The officer said the charge from the shotgun peppered the front of the home of Felix Funk, Midway. One window was broken but no one was hurt. Funk estimated that the lead shot caused about $50 damage to his property.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Martin and daughter, Mary Lou, Springs avenue, spent Sunday in Harrisburg with friends and relatives.

Blood Plasma
Saves Lives On Italian Front

By GEORGE TUCKER

At the Eight Evacuation Hospital, Fifth Army Front, Italy, May 15 (AP) — This is the shock ward of an emergency hospital where blood plasma is stacked like cordwood.

All through the day and night litter bearers have come in from the environs around Santa Maria Infante which our infantry re-took yesterday after the Germans had kicked us out.

The litter bearers place the wounded on saw horses, like carpenter's use, and when every inch of space is crowded they spill over into adjoining wards.

Saved From Death

When a man is hit he goes "in shock." His blood pressure falls and his pulsebeat increases. Unless he can be brought out of the shock he can't survive an operation, and that is where plasma comes in.

You can walk down the lengthening rows of white faces and wonder how they can pull through. Plasma does it. I saw a man from Ohio take 10 units of plasma and come back from the fluttery edges of death. Color flooded back into his face and his pulse fell almost to normal. Recovery now is almost certain.

It is startling the way infantrymen can bear in silence almost anything the battle field can throw at them. It humbles you to stand amid 100 men whose bodies have been shattered and not hear one single word of complaint. They just lie there waiting their turn to be taken into the operating rooms.

Smile, Though Hurt

You walk down long rows of litters and look at the dogtags which give blood types and tell where they are from — Buffalo, Detroit, Decatur, Ala.; Jersey City, Omaha, Lowell, Mass.

This man has a shattered knee. The next is a sniper from Atlanta, Ga., who has shell-fragments in his neck and chest.

Asked about their wounds, they'll smile, and whisper now they got them.

"You see," whispered one, "the captain told me to take four men and flank a machine gun nest, and we flanked and got it with grenades. Then they threw mortars on us and before I could get my men into cover it got me. It didn't hurt. It just didn't feel anything. It just knocked and when I tried to get up I couldn't. But I was pretty lucky. I was there only two hours before they picked me up."

Sometimes a heart-breaking choice must be made between a man who has no chance and another whom surgery might save.

Timeless Workers

A lieutenant seemed perfectly calm and looked up with wide clear eyes, but his spinal cord had been severed and nothing human hands could do would make him whole again. Next to him was a man who had been hit hard through the chest. But he still had a chance, and so they took him.

I followed this case through surgery, where eight teams were working around the clock driving themselves until their eyes were hollow. But they stood there, hour after hour, cheating death making men whole again. Men like Lt. Col. Cato Drash, who taught surgery at the University of Virginia and nurses like Lt. Ruth Eastman of Pulaski, Va., manage to keep the work of saving lives running smoothly in the midst of the terrible confusion.

Of Code Violations

Charges of driving too fast for conditions in center square and failing to stop at the signal of an officer were filed this morning by Borough Officer Clark Staley before Justice of the Peace John H. Baschore against Edgar L. Shellman, 19, East Berlin R. 2.

The officer said Shellman entered the square from York street Sunday evening at 9:45 o'clock and "nearly upset" as he rounded the circle disregarding four blasts on the policeman's whistle. Officer Staley gave chase in the police car and brought the Shellman car to a stop on West High street near the Catholic church.

Allied Headquarters, Naples, May 15 (AP)—French troops have advanced as much as seven miles from the take-off point on the Fifth Army right wing in the all-out Allied offensive and captured the important town of Ausonia, creating a "significant breach" in the Germans' Gustav line in southern Italy, Allied headquarters announced today.

The Americans have smashed the enemy out of Santa Maria Infante and San Pietro on the lower Garigliano river and taken vital mountain positions on both sides of the Ausente river.

Americans Advance Four Miles

The French have reached the hills dominating San Gorgio, equally as important as Ausonia.

The Americans are pressing an attack on Spigno, showing they have driven at least four miles north and west of Minturno.

Ausonia is six and a half miles north of Minturno and San Grigorio seven miles southwest of Cassino and one mile south of the Liri river.

Farther to the north, the big Allied offensive also gained, with the British and Indians deepening their Rapido river bridgehead to at least 2,000 yards—more than a mile—and sending over great numbers of tanks to exploit this attack into the Liri valley—a direct road to Rome.

More Than 2,000 Prisoners Captured

More than 2,000 prisoners already have streamed back into Allied cages and others were coming in constantly as the attacks progressed.

Very heavy casualties have been inflicted along the whole front and hard fighting continues everywhere up and down the line of attack, an Allied communique said.

The German 71st division, which was entirely reconstituted after its original was wiped out at Stalingrad, bore the brunt of the Fifth Army attack and lost over 1,200 men in prisoners alone, including six battalion commanders.

The whole frontline defenses of this division have been overturned.

After a bitter and bloody fight the Americans drove the Nazis out of the town of Santa Maria Infante at noon yesterday, pushed on to a road junction northeast of the town and fanned out to capture the village of San Pietro and the nearby hills, Monte Cerri and Monte Bracchi on either side of the Ausente river. Then they continued the attack on Spigno.

BULLETINS

By W. W. HERCHER

London, May 15 (AP)—American Flying Fortresses and Liberators attacked German invasion defenses in the Pas de Calais area nearest Britain today in the 31st consecutive day of the great aerial offensive, after a night in which German bombers sharply attacked the British coast.

No American bomber was lost today but one of the accompanying Mustangs was missing. It fell to anti-aircraft fire since the U. S. communique said no German plane was sighted.

A maximum of 250 fortresses and Liberators under protection of Eighth Air Force Mustangs pounded military installations in France, following up a night attack on Cologne by British Mosquito bombers, and a week-end of activity which saw the historic Brenner Pass, main supply line for the Nazis in Italy, virtually sealed up.

By HENRY C. CASSIDY

Moscow, May 15 (AP)—Russian armies are believed massing for a summer offensive surpassing any blow yet struck on the eastern front.

The spring lull which started in mid-April continued today and no fresh military dispatches were published from the front.

But there were multiplying signs of the coming rush. Russian bombers, for instance, struck at the rail center of Brest Litovsk (in old Poland) starting 30 fires, and also attacked Nazi bases at Polotsk in White Russia and Narva in the Estonian republic.

Pravda reported that a new Yak fighter plane was going into mass production. This is a modified version of the craft designed by Gen. Alexander Yakovlev, which proved the fastest on the Russian front. Other plane and arms plants are working top speed, building up supplies for the offensive.

HOT WEEK-END

Breezes today brought relief after one of the hottest week-ends so far this year. Saturday's official high in Gettysburg was 87 degrees while Sunday's maximum reading was 85. At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon the mercury stood at 81½ degrees. Sunday night's low was 52 degrees.

The French in the upper Garigliano area approached the Liri river in the vicinity of San Gorgio after occupying a number of dominating heights. Ausonia, in the valley connecting the Liri valley with the sea, fell yesterday afternoon.

French Seize Heights

In quick succession the embattled French won 2,500-foot Monte Rinchuso and 1,900-foot Colle Agri-foglio and occupied the towns of San Andrea and San Ambrogio and mopped up San Appollinare.

Subsequently the troops of Gen. Alphonse Juin routed the Germans from the 1,400-foot Colle Castellone, highest feature overlooking San Gorgio and Colle Castellupo, which overlooks the Liri valley and flanks enemy positions in the valley.

The defended town of Corena southeast of Ausonia was by-passed and surrounded and other heights beyond were seized.

Southwest of Cassino the enemy put in strong counter-attacks throughout yesterday with infantry supported by Nebelwerfers, artillery and a few tanks. From the Nazi First Parachute Division elements in this sector the Allies captured four officers and 117 men prior to yesterday.

The only sector of the offensive front where the fighting died down was northwest of Cassino where the Poles had attacked heavily on the two preceding days.

Gurkhas In Action

It was reported officially that the enemy was hastily reinforcing his defenses against the Poles and moving up other reinforcements also for a prolonged battle along the entire front with an evident determination to prevent any break-through on the Gustav line which would permit the Allies to begin an early assault on the Hitler line beyond.

Knife-swinging Gurkhas cleaned out the last enemy resistance in the labyrinthine cellars and fortified buildings of San Angelo in the Rapido bridgehead and tanks and infantry advanced slowly south of that town. Enemy pockets were mopped up also in the area of the Rapido and Liri rivers.

U. S. Army engineers building new bridges on the lower Garigliano river despite the shelling of the enemy's long-range guns used diving suits to descend 25 feet under water to check foundations of old bridges wrecked by the Germans.

GERMAN DEFEAT SURE; PREDICT HITLER OUSTER

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

As we await the break of D-day it's natural that one of the burning questions should be how long it will take the Allied war machine, after it has hit top speed, to grind out this final phase of the European war and administer the coup de grace to Hitler.

The first point we must look down in examining this undoubtedly is that we are facing a terrific struggle. We should be foolish not to recognize that.

Having acknowledged this, it's legitimate to note that many observers incline to the theory that once the invading forces have overcome the terrible initial hazards and have established themselves, the Hitlerites will be about ready to accept the inevitable and surrender. This idea is based on the belief that the Nazis will quit short of allowing the fight to be carried out German territory.

To Oust Hitler

Along this line, Dr. Norman R. F. Maier, University of Michigan psychologist who forecasts the Munich failure, now predicts that the German people will liquidate Hitler as soon as it's demonstrated that the Allied invasion is a success. Doctor Maier says revolution is brewing in Germany and that nothing can save the Fuehrer when the fiction of the invincibility of fortress Europe is blasted.

Speculation over the prospects of Nazi surrender would be dangerous if we didn't at the same time recognize the certainty that the invasion of western Europe is going to produce one of the bloodiest battles of history. The only thing which will force a collapse of the enemy will be conviction that there's absolutely no hope of gaining more favorable terms by hanging on.

The Prussian militarists, who are among the world's best soldiers, know that they already are beaten. They're making a long shot gamble that by protracting the conflict they can weaken Allied determination and thereby secure better terms.

To Fight Invasion

The Hitlerites are going to fight invasion with everything they have—and that represents tremendous striking power, although it's far from what it once was. And we shouldn't treat lightly the German claim that they have devastating secret weapons, for they may have. Hitler's army is generally figured to total about 3,000,000, which is a formidable force. However, the fact remains that the German Reichswehr, big as it is, just isn't strong enough to cope with the Allied armies. The Russians alone may have at least twice as many men under arms, apart from the vast forces of the western Allies.

Thus despite Hitler's great strength, he no longer is able to defend adequately the entire perimeter of his European fortress. It should be remembered that he not only is encircled by superior land forces, but that he also is ringed by air and by sea. Once the American-British-French armies of invasion are smashing at Hitler's lines in France in cooperation with the Russians on the east and the Allies in Italy and Balkans, he will be unable to protect all points at once.

Want Stalemate
Veritas, the British military commentator, concludes that the manpower situation "clearly indicates the inevitability of Germany's eventual collapse in the field." However, he believes the Nazis will make a supreme effort to throw back the invading Allies "or at least to effect a stalemate in the west before the Russians get at their vitals on the other side."

Approve Bonds Of 3 Tax Collectors

Bonds of three tax collectors were approved and a small amount of current business was transacted at a 20-minute session of court this morning with Judge W. C. Sheely and Associate Judges A. Dale Knouse and J. Price Oyer on the bench. Bonds of George Slaybaugh, Biglerville, Theodore A. Low, Fairfield, and Merle R. Morris, Freedom township were approved. The court also confirmed accounts in five estates. Miss Martha V. Boyd, a deputy clerk of the courts for more than 20 years was on duty in the court room this morning for the first time. S. S. OFFICERS ARE RE-ELECTED

All officers were re-elected at the 37th annual convention of the First District of the Adams County Sunday School Association held Sunday afternoon at Memorial United Brethren church.

The officers are: President, the Rev. Ralph W. Baker; vice-president, T. J. Winebrenner; secretary, Helen Paxton; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Grindler; children's division, Mrs. Richard S. Lighter; young people's division, Prof. William Quillian; assistant, Mrs. H. T. Bream, adult division; the Rev. A. R. Longenecker; evangelist, the Rev. Dr. N. B. S. Thomas; missionary and temperance, Mrs. Emma Howard, and advisory member, C. C. Culp.

Eleven of the 16 schools of the district were represented by 64 resident delegates. Approximately 100 persons attended.

The Rev. Will F. Bare, Seminary avenue, was presented the 50-year service award given by the Pennsylvania State Sunday School association.

The Sunday school of the Four-square Gospel church was admitted to membership.

A report of the financial statement revealed that all bills and pledges to the state and county groups were met with a substantial balance remaining in the treasury.

Arrest Driver In Machine Collision

Occupants escaped with a severe shaking up and bruises but damage estimated at $950 was caused about 10:30 o'clock Saturday evening when two cars collided at the intersection of Baltimore and High streets.

Borough officers Clark Staley and Paul B. Shearer investigated and Officer Staley filed a charge against one driver.

Thomas E. Lowe, 18, Gettysburg R. 5, is charged before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder with failing to stop at the stop-sign at the intersection before driving onto Baltimore street from West High as a car operated by Lawrence E. Plank, Gettysburg R. 4, drove south on Baltimore street.

After the machines collided the car operated by Plank and owned by Charles Nicholls, Carlisle R. 5, struck a fire hydrant in front of the Presbyterian church. One of the seven occupants of the Nicholls car was reported to have been thrown out but was only bruised. Neither machine upset but both had to be towed from the scene.

$900 Damage In Truck Collision

Damage estimated at $900 was caused this morning when a gasoline truck and a car collided at an intersection in Midway about 8 o'clock. Private George Ackerson of the Gettysburg substation of the state police investigated and said he will charge one of the drivers, Bernard C. Schuhart, 351 Third street, Hanover, with making a left turn in the face of oncoming traffic.

Schuhart, who was driving the gasoline truck, intended to make a left turn, he told the officer, but was blinded by the sun and failed to see the approaching car of William E. Rinehart, 217 High street, Hanover. Schuhart began his left turn, saw Rinehart and tried to swerve right but the machines struck head-on.

The charge against Schuhart will be filed before Justice of the Peace L. G. Kuhn, Conewago township.

News Briefs

London, May 15 (AP)—The Germans, in their broadcasts speculating on Allied invasion moves, admitted today that their west wall defenses might be penetrated after all when the blow comes. "When the battle starts," a Berlin commentator said, "the fighting will not be limited to the divisions on the Atlantic wall or to points under attack, but small waves may reach far beyond. Then Germany will be called upon to stand her greatest and most dangerous test."

Southwest Asia Headquarters, Kandy, Ceylon, May 15 (AP)—Chinese troops have captured Tarongkang, 11 miles north of Kamaing, and Burmese fighting for the Allies have raided Tangu, only 28 miles north of Myitkyina, in the closest strike to that main Japanese base in Northern Burma. Allied headquarters announced today.

Stockholm, May 15 (AP)—Norwegian and Russian partisans have been landed in far northern Norway from Soviet submarines which slipped past German defenses through the fjord-dotted coastline. The Stockholm Tidningen said today.

Advance Allied Headquarters, New Guinea, May 15 (AP)—The heaviest bombing since the pre-invasion softening of Hollandia was reported today as one of six separate assaults designed to immobilize the last remnants of Japanese air power in New Guinea. Big Liberators and treacherous Mitchells dumped 334 tons Saturday on Wakde island and the Maffin Bay coastline to Sarmi, 20 miles southwest on the Dutch New Guinea mainland.

Allied Headquarters, Naples, May 15 (AP)—Striking both long and strengthening enemy air resistance, Allied warplanes flew more than 2,000 sorties yesterday supporting the Fifth and Eighth Armies by an intense campaign to isolate the Gustav line defenders.

Washington, May 15 (AP)—The Senate Naval Affairs committee acted unanimously today in recommending Senate confirmation of James V. Forrestal's nomination as Secretary of the Navy, and afterwards accorded the former undersecretary an ovation when he appeared before the committee in response to a special invitation. Applause greeted Forrestal's appearance and the entire committee arose in special tribute.

Philadelphia, May 15 (AP)—Mrs. Kathleen McCarthy received a Mother's Day card and a $50 money order gift from her son, William, 24, an aviation cadet in training at Waco, Tex.

Ten minutes later the telephone rang and his commanding officer told her he had been killed in a plane crash.

New York, May 15 (AP)—An appeal for the establishment of temporary rescue camps in the United States to "give helpless victims of Nazi frightfulness some chance of survival," has been made to President Roosevelt by the Emergency committee to save the Jewish people of Europe.

Refuses To Permit Prisoner Handcuffed

Pittsburgh, May 15 (AP)—Criminal Court Judge Alexander Cooper, who refused to permit a prisoner to be handcuffed and chained for extradition from Pennsylvania, today defended his action and termed "irrelevant" criticism from Arthur L. Glatke, superintendent of the Ohio State reformatory at Mansfield.

Informed of Glatke's charge that "Pennsylvania courts can hardly expect cooperation from police forces if they turn loose convicted lawbreakers," Judge Cooper declared: "Whatever he says doesn't bother me."

"Here," continued the judge, "was a man who voluntarily surrendered and offered to go back. The offense was a minor one, committed when this man was young. If he had been a vicious criminal, if the man who took him back was in danger of his life, he would be entitled to take any means needed to protect himself. It was not proper police tactics."

GERMAN DEFEAT SURE; PREDICT HITLER OUSTER

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst
As we await the break of D-day it's natural that one of the burning questions should be how long it will take the Allied war machine, after it has hit top speed, to grind out this final phase of the European war and administer the coup de grace to Hitler.

The first point we must log down in examining this undoubtedly is that we are facing a terrific struggle. We should be foolish not to recognize that.

Having acknowledged this, it's legitimate to note that many observers incline to the theory that once the invading forces have overcome the terrible initial hazards and have established themselves, the Hitlerites will be about ready to accept the inevitable and surrender. This idea is based on the belief that the Nazis will quit short of allowing the fight to be carried onto German territory.

To Oust Hitler
Along this line, Dr. Norman R. F. Maier, University of Michigan psychologist who forecast the Munich failure, now predicts that the German people will liquidate Hitler as soon as it's demonstrated that the Allied invasion is a success. Doctor Maier says revolution is brewing in Germany and that nothing can save the Fuehrer when the fiction of the invincibility of fortress Europe is blasted.

Speculation over the prospects of Nazi surrender would be dangerous if we didn't at the same time recognize the certainty that the invasion of western Europe is going to produce one of the bloodiest battles of history. The only thing which will force a collapse of the enemy will be conviction that there's absolutely no hope of gaining more favorable terms by hanging on.

The Prussian militarists, who are among the world's best soldiers, know that they already are beaten. They're making a long shot gamble that by protracting the conflict they can weaken Allied determination and thereby secure better terms.

To Fight Invasion
The Hitlerites are going to fight invasion with everything they have—and that represents tremendous striking power, although it's far from what it once was. And we shouldn't treat lightly the German claim that they have devastating secret weapons, for they may have.

Hitler's army is generally figured to total about 3,000,000, which is a formidable force. However, the fact remains that the German Reichswehr, big as it is, just isn't strong enough to cope with the Allied armies. The Russians alone may have at least twice as many men under arms, apart from the vast forces of the western Allies.

Thus despite Hitler's great strength, he no longer is able to defend adequately the entire perimeter of his European fortress. It should be remembered that he not only is encircled by superior land forces, but that he also is ringed by air and by sea. Once the American-British-French armies of invasion are smashing at Hitler's lines in France in cooperation with the Russians on the east and the Allies in Italy and Balkans, he will be unable to protect all points at once.

Want Statement
Veritas, the British military commentator, concludes that the manpower situation "clearly indicates the inevitability of Germany's eventual collapse in the field." However, he believes the Nazis will make a supreme effort to throw back the invading Allies "or at least to effect a stalemate in the west before the Russians get at their vitals on the other side."

Approve Bonds Of 3 Tax Collectors

Bonds of three tax collectors were approved and a small amount of current business was transacted at a 20-minute session of court this morning with Judge W. C. Sheely and Associate Judges A. D. Knoke and J. Price Oyster on the bench.

Arrest Driver In Machine Collision

Occupants escaped with a severe shaking up and bruises but damage estimated at $850 was caused about 10:30 o'clock Saturday evening when two cars collided at the intersection of Baltimore and High streets. Borough Officers Clark Staley and Paul B. Shearer investigated and Officer Staley filed a charge against one driver.

Thomas E. Lowe, 18, Gettysburg R. 5, is charged before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder with failing to stop at the stop-sign at the intersection before driving onto Baltimore street from West High as a car operated by Lawrence E. Plank, Gettysburg R. 4, drove south on Baltimore street.

After the machines collided the car operated by Plank and owned by Charles Nicholls, Carlisle R. 5, struck a fire hydrant in front of the Presbyterian church. One of the seven occupants of the Nicholls car was reported to have been thrown out but was only bruised.

Neither machine upset but both had to be towed from the scene.

$900 Damage In Truck Collision

Damage estimated at $900 was caused this morning when a gasoline truck and a car collided at an intersection in Midway about 8 o'clock. Private George Ackerson of the state police investigated and said he will charge one of the drivers, Bernard C. Schuhart, 351 Third street, Hanover, with making a left turn in the face of oncoming traffic.

Schuhart, who was driving the gasoline truck, intended to make a left turn, he told the officer, but was blinded by the sun and failed to see the approaching car of William E. Rinehart, 217 High street, Hanover. Schuhart began his left turn, saw Rinehart and tried to swerve right but the machines struck headon.

The charge against Schuhart will be filed before Justice of the Peace L. G. Kuhn, Conewago township.

Refuses To Permit Prisoner Handcuffed

Pittsburgh, May 15 (AP)—Criminal Court Judge Alexander Cooper, who refused to permit a prisoner to be handcuffed and chained for extradition from Pennsylvania, today defended his action and termed "irrelevant" criticism from Arthur L. Glattke, superintendent of the Ohio State reformatory at Mansfield.

Informed of Glattke's charge that "Pennsylvania courts can hardly expect cooperation from police forces if they turn loose convicted lawbreakers," Judge Cooper declared: "Whatever he says doesn't bother me."

"Here," continued the judge, "was a man who voluntarily surrendered and offered to go back. The offense was a minor one, committed when this man was young. If he had been a vicious criminal, if the man who took him back was in danger of his life, he would be entitled to take any means needed to protect himself. It was not proper police tactics."

BUCKY WALTERS BARELY MISSES PERFECT GAME

By TED MEIER
Bucky Walters, star righthander for the Cincinnati Reds, yesterday just missed becoming the first pitcher in 22 years to hurl a perfect game in the major leagues. He pitched to only 28 batters.

Working the first game of a twin bill against the Boston Braves at Crosley field, Walters retired the first 23 men to face him. Then, with two out in the eighth, Connie Ryan, Braves second sacker, singled over third base. He was the only Boston player to get on base.

It was the nearest to a perfect game in the majors since Charley Robertson, of the Chicago White Sox, turned the trick against Detroit on April 30, 1922.

Walters won his one-hitter, 4 to 0, for his fifth straight win, but Ira Hutchinson kept the Reds from sweeping the bargain bill. He scattered eight Reds hits for a 6 to 0 Brave triumph in the nightcap.

Leaders Take Two

The New York Yankees and St. Louis Cardinals each tightened their grip on first place in the American and National league, respectively. The Yanks beat Cleveland twice, 4 to 3 in 13 innings and 8-4 before 41,628 paid at the Yankee stadium, the largest crowd of the 188,166 fans who watched the eight Sunday doubleheaders. Johnny Lindell's 13 inning single won the opener while Don Savage's three-run homer clinched the afterpiece.

The second place Phillies went down twice before the Cards at St. Louis, 6 to 3 and 1 to 0. Big Mort Cooper won his second game in the opener while George Mungler bested southpaw Al Gerheuser in the nip-and-tuck second game.

Dizzy Trout and Johnny Gorsica pitched the Detroit Tigers out of last place in the American loop. They beat the Boston Red Sox, 6 to 1 and 9 to 0, to shove the Sox into the basement. Gorsica twirled a three-hitter for the shutout. He fazed only 29 batters.

Pittsburgh climbed into the National league first division by beating the Giants twice, 1 to 0 and 8 to 2. Rip Sewell yielded only six hits in defeating Bill Voiselle in the opener.

Athletics Climb

Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics took both ends of their twin bill from the St. Louis Browns, 4 to 3 in 11 innings and 2 to 0. Ford Garrison's fifth-hit of the game won the opener while Frankie Hayes' two-run homer won the nightcap for Luman Harris. The double win put the A's back in the first division.

Washington split with the Chicago White Sox. Dutch Leonard whitewashed the Sox in the opener, 4 to 0. A ninth inning rally, featured by Thurman Tucker's two-run single, won the nightcap for Chicago, 6 to 4.

Brooklyn beat the Chicago Cubs, 4 to 2, in the first game of a bargain bill before 32,168, but lost the second, 8 to 7, after enjoying a 7 to 1 lead going into the eighth. The Cubs scored five runs in the eighth and won the game with two more in the ninth. Roy Hughes' single drove in the winning run.

Bradford Wings Down Falcons In 9th

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Jamestown, N. Y., May 15 (AP)—The Jamestown Falcons of the Pony league led Bradford's Blue Wings all the way to the last of the ninth inning yesterday only to see their two-run lead washed away when Bradford scored two runs, winning 5-4.

Up to that time, Lefty Parkhurst, Falcon pitcher, had the Blue Wings handcuffed in every inning except the fourth, when they scored two runs.

Olean got four hits and four runs off Erie pitcher Chuck Bernardi in the seventh inning to defeat the Sailors 6-4 in the final game of their series.

The Wellsville Yankees and Lockport Cubs split a doubleheader, the Cubs taking the opener 17-3, with the Yanks coming back to win the seven-inning nightcap 7-4.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, May 15 (AP)—Looks like there's a slight football war brewing—and we don't mean the difference of opinion between Lou Little and Bill Bingham about the college rules.

It seems the new American league on the Pacific coast has been dickering with a few players who are under contract to National league clubs. . . . That, of course, would "outlaw" the athletes for five years but it may be that some of them are shopping around to see if the risk is worth taking.

And the regular USO league season doesn't start until May 16."

Hagerstown Tops Interstate Loop

(By The Associated Press)
Today it's the Hagerstown nine that leads the interstate league.

Wilmington, easy leader a week ago with six straight wins is no longer in the money. It's winning streak was broken by York and more defeats were imposed by Allentown. The latter team walked off with both games of a double header last night, 8-5 and 7-3. Allentown's George Davis gave 1,789 a home run for their money in the fourth inning of the second game—with two mates on base.

Trenton continues in second place, after splitting the victories yesterday with York. The White Roses won a 15-3 decision over Trenton in the first game but the New Jersey team came through 2-1 in the second half of the double header.

Hagerstown took the lead in the first innings of both games with Lancaster Sunday, gaining first place in the interstate series. Scores were 9-4 and 7-5.

PENSIVE NINTH TO TAKE DERBY AND PREAKNESS

By DONALD SANDERS

Baltimore, May 15 (AP)—Pensive, the ninth horse in turf history to win both the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, was prepared today to leave for Belmont Park to point for the Belmont stakes, third leg of the triple crown, possibly by way of the Withers.

Trainer Ben Jones, who preceded his Calumet farm stable to New York, still had not decided whether he would start Saturday's Preakness winner in the Withers, mile race to be contested this Saturday.

Among the 33,011 persons who saw Warren Wright's chestnut Son of Hyperion charge from behind to win the richest of 54 Preakness runnings, there were many who doubted that the colt would be at his best over the shorter distance.

For Pensive didn't really start to run until the field of seven had gone three-quarters of a mile, and he was still in third place to Mrs. Payne Whitney's Stir Up and George D. Widener's Platter as they turned for home.

Winner's Check $50,075

Platter soon collared Stir Up, and then lugged in toward the rail as Little Conn McCreary and Pensive came winging by at the sixteenth pole to earn a three-quarter length victory and the winner's check of $50,075. He ran the mile and three-sixteenths in 1:59 1-5.

Pensive thus boosted his earnings for 1944 to $139,475 and won the seventh Maryland stake triumph for Wright's Calumet horses. The $142,705 which the Calumet color bearers picked up at Pimlico, together with their winnings in Florida and Pensive's Derby check ran the total for the young season to $250,840—only some $17,000 short of their figure last year, when they topped the country.

Saturday's Pimlico crowd, which made pensive a $5.30 for $2 favorite sent a record Maryland wagering total through the mutual windows, betting $1,758,588 on the eight races and the daily double. The Preakness handle was $332,108, also a Maryland record for one race.

UTICA TAKES TWO FROM SOX

(By The Associated Press)

A triple play, a double win over last year's champions and a record home attendance all in one afternoon gave the Utica Braves reasons to be happy today.

The Utes swept both ends of a twin bill with the Scranton Red Sox yesterday, winning 5-2 and 5-4 before a paid attendance of 3,889, the largest on record at McConnel field.

The triple play was engineered in the third inning of the first game. Scranton had two men on when Charley Dettrey, Red Sox leftfielder, rapped the ball to Nick Picciuto at third. The relay was from Picciuto to Fred Daniels at second to Tyson at first.

The Wilkes-Barre Barons blasted their way to the top of the league standing by taking a pair at Binghamton, 6-0 and 5-2. Sam McLawhorn hurled the shutout, setting the Triplets down with six scattered hits.

Elmira's Pioneers climbed from a fourth place tie into sole possession of second place with a double win over Albany, 5-3, 11-5, at Elmira. The sweep gave the Pioneers six wins in their last eight starts.

George Kuffman and Mel Hollmeister received credit for the victories. Albany, which topped the circuit before the week-end play started, dropped to third place. The Hartford Laurels split with the Williamsport Grays on the latter's diamond. The Laurels took the opener, 5-3, but dropped the nightcap, 2-1. Johnny Drall limited Hartford to five hits in the finale.

Pirates To Extend Baseball Schools

Pittsburgh, May 15 (AP)—President William E. Benswanger announced the Pittsburgh Pirates manpower problems similar to other major league clubs, plan to extend the annual spring and summer baseball program to include ten sessions in five eastern states.

The Pirates also plan a series of schools on the west coast under direction of Hollis Thurston, Bucco scout.

The schools, held for the purpose of discovering, encouraging and developing young players with professional baseball potentialities, will be under direction of Bob Rice, Pirate field director. Leo Mackey, Joe Brehany and Patsy O'Rourke of the Pirate scouting staff will assist Rice.

The "students" are required to bring their own uniforms, gloves and shoes, be more than 15 years old and provide their own transportation from the field to their homes.

The schedule includes, July 28, 29, and 30, York, Pa., West York park.

RALLY HELD IN MOUNTAINS

By JOHN TALBOT

Somewhere in Yugoslavia, May 8 (Delayed)—Yugoslavia's great youth rally, held in a smashed and almost deserted village high up in the mountains, has ended after five days of enthusiastic debates, singing and dancing.

The rally was attended by some 800 delegates from all parts of the country. Now these young men and women, whose ages range from 15 to 25, must find their long and perilous way back to their own districts. For some it means more than 25 days of marching through wild mountains, with stiff battles against German and Quisling troops.

A number of the youthful delegates lost their lives in an effort to fight their way through the enemy lines to reach the rally and others will die fighting as they head toward their homes again, but for the youth of liberated Yugoslavia nothing has been in vain, for it has been a meeting of tremendous importance.

It has given them their first chance in nearly 15 months to meet other young folk from the other ends of the country, to exchange with them their experiences and to discuss all manner of questions regarding their various organizations.

Bradford Wings Down Falcons In 9th

Buffalo, N. Y., May 15 (AP)—The Jamestown Falcons of the Pony league led Bradford's Blue Wings all the way to the last of the ninth inning yesterday only to see their two-run lead washed away when Bradford scored two runs, winning 5-4.

Up to that time, Lefty Parkhurst, Falcon pitcher, had the Blue Wings handcuffed in every inning except the fourth, when they scored two runs.

Olean got four hits and four runs off Erie pitcher Chuck Bernardi in the seventh inning to defeat the Sailors 6-4 in the final game of their series.

The Wellsville Yankees and Lockport Cubs split a doubleheader, the Cubs taking the opener 17-3, with the Yanks coming back to win the seven-inning nightcap 7-4.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, May 15 (AP)—Looks like there's a slight football war brewing—and we don't mean the difference of opinion between Lou Little and Bill Bingham about the college rules. . . . It seems the new American league on the Pacific coast has been dickering with a few players who are under contract to National league clubs. . . . That, of course, would "outlaw" the athletes for five years but it may be that some of them are shopping around to see if the risk is worth taking.

Eli Whitney, the champion heart player and victory gardener of the American Bowling Congress, reports he has raised 500 tomato, cabbage, pepper, etc., plants right in his office building.

MONDAY MATINEE

Notre Dame's newest "T" formation discovery is Joe Gasparella, 17-year-old freshman from Vandergrift, Pa., who was a center until Ed McKeever saw him pitching the ball during spring practice and made him a quarterback. . . . Lou Diamond, who hasn't had a fight to manage since Uncle Sam ferreted out Light Heavyweight Champion Gus Lesnevich, has bought lightweight Bobby Gunther from Chris Dundee. . . . North Carolina, which had 31 professional baseball clubs before the war, doesn't have even one this year.

A ROOKIE A DAY

Ed Lopat, White Sox pitcher: Full name Edmund Lopatynski. . . . A New York boy, he was one of 1,000 players who made good out of 1,000 who participated in a Dodge baseball school in 1936. . . . was sent to Elmira as a first baseman but two years later decided he was a pitcher. . . . proved it last season by leading South Association with a 3-05 earned run average and winning 19 games for Little Rock.

SERVICE DEPT.

Here, reports Lieut. (jg) Jack Sugg, is what happens when you try to run a baseball club for a Navy armed guard center: "Ens. Lloyd Ruddell reports for duty as a gunnery officer and is slated to go on the mound against Tulane. . . . just before game time the wheels start to grind and Russell finds himself aboard ship throwing orders instead of baseballs. . . . in seven games the team has used 33 players; there have already been 80 men on the squad, which at any given time numbers around 25; only four of the original squad are still on hand. . . . And the regular USO league season doesn't start until May 16."

Hagerstown Tops

Interstate Loop

(By The Associated Press)

Today it's the Hagerstown nine that leads the interstate league. . . . Wilmington, easy leader a week ago with six straight wins is no longer in the money. It's winning streak was broken by York and more defeats were imposed by Allentown. The latter team walked off with both games of a double header last night, 8-5 and 7-3. Allentown's George Davis gave 1.789 a home run for their money in the fourth inning of the second game—with two mates on base.

Trenton continues in second place, after splitting the victories yesterday with York. The White Roses won a 15-3 decision over Trenton in the first game but the New Jersey team came through 2-1 in the second half of the double header.

Hagerstown took the lead in the first innings of both games with Lancaster Sunday, gaining first place in the interstate series. Scores were 9-4 and 7-5.

PENSIVE NINTH TO TAKE DERBY AND PREAKNESS

By DONALD SANDERS

Baltimore, May 15 (AP)—Pensive, the ninth horse in turf history to win both the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, was prepared today to leave for Belmont Park to point for the Belmont stakes, third leg of the triple crown, possibly by way of the Withers.

Trainer Ben Jones, who preceded his Calumet farm stable to New York, still had not decided whether he would start Saturday's Preakness winner in the Withers, mile race to be contested this Saturday.

Among the 33,011 persons who saw Warren Wright's chestnut Son of Hyperion charge from behind to win the richest of 54 Preakness runnings, there were many who doubted that the colt would be at his best over the shorter distance.

For Pensive didn't really start to run until the field of seven had gone three-quarters of a mile, and he was still in third place to Mrs. Payne Whitney's Stir Up and George D. Widener's Platter as they turned for home.

Winner's Check $60,075

Platter soon collared Stir Up, and then lugged in toward the rail as Little Conn McCreary and Pensive came winging by at the sixteenth pole to earn a three-quarter length victory and the winner's check of $60,075. He ran the mile and three-sixteenths in 1:59 1-5.

Pensive thus boosted his earning for 1944 to $139,475 and won the seventh Maryland stake triumph for Wright's Calumet horses. The $142,705 which the Calumet color bearers picked up at Pimlico, together with their winnings in Florida and Pensive's Derby check ran the total for the young season to $250,840—only some $17,000 short of their figure last year, when they topped the country.

Saturday's Pimlico crowd, which made pensive a $5.30 for $2 favorite sent a record Maryland wagering total through the mutual windows, betting $1,758,588 on the eight races and the daily double. The Preakness handle was $332,108, also a Maryland record for one race.

UTICA TAKES TWO FROM SOX

(By The Associated Press)

A triple play, a double win over last year's champions and a record home attendance all in one afternoon gave the Utica Braves reasons to be happy today.

The Utes swept both ends of a twin bill with the Scranton Red Sox yesterday, winning 5-2 and 5-4 before a paid attendance of 3,889, the largest on record at McConnel field.

The triple play was engineered in the third inning of the first game. Scranton had two men on when Charley Dettrey, Red Sox leftfielder, rapped the ball to Nick Picciuto at third. The relay was from Picciuto to Fred Daniels at second to Tyson at first.

The Wilkes-Barre Barons blasted their way to the top of the league standing by taking a pair at Binghamton, 6-0 and 5-2. Sam McLawhorn hurled the shutout, setting the Triplets down with six scattered hits.

Elmira's Pioneers climbed from a fourth place tie into sole possession of second place with a double win over Albany, 5-3, 11-5, at Elmira.

The sweep gave the Pioneers six wins in their last eight starts. George Kuffman and Mel Holmeister received credit for the victories. Albany, which topped the circuit before the week-end's play started dropped to third place. The Hartford Laurels split with the Williamsport Grays on the latter's diamond. The Laurels took the opener, 5-3, but dropped the nightcap, 2-1. Johnny Drall limited Hartford to five hits in the finale.

Pirates To Extend Baseball Schools

Pittsburgh, May 15 (AP)—President William E. Benswanger announced the Pittsburgh Pirates manpower problems similar to other major league clubs, plan to extend the annual spring and summer baseball program to include ten sessions in five eastern states.

The Pirates also plan a series of schools on the west coast under direction of Hollis Thurston, Bucco scout.

The schools, held for the purpose of discovering, encouraging and developing young players with professional baseball potentialities, will be under direction of Bob Rice, Pirate field director, Leo Mackey, Joe Brehany and Patsy O'Rourke of the Pirate scouting staff will assist Rice.

The "students" are required to bring their own uniforms, gloves and shoes, be more than 15 years old and provide their own transportation from the field to their homes.

The schedule includes, July 28, 29, and 30, York, Pa., West York park.

RALLY HELD IN MOUNTAINS

By JOHN TALBOT

Somewhere in Yugoslavia, May 8 (Delayed)—Yugoslavia's great youth rally, held in a smashed and almost deserted village high up in the mountains, has ended after five days of enthusiastic debates, singing and dancing.

The rally was attended by some 800 delegates from all parts of the country. Now these young men and women, whose ages range from 15 to 25, must find their long and perilous way back to their own districts. For some it means more than 25 days of marching through wild mountains, with stiff battles against German and Quisling troops.

A number of the youthful delegates lost their lives in an effort to fight their way through the enemy lines to reach the rally and others will die fighting as they head toward their homes again, but for the youth of liberated Yugoslavia nothing has been in vain, for it has been a meeting of tremendous importance.

It has given them their first chance in nearly 15 months to meet other young folk from the other ends of the country, to exchange with them their experiences and to discuss all manner of questions regarding their various organizations.

Western Bowlers Lead Tournament

Philadelphia, May 15 (AP)—

Western and upstate Pennsylvania continue to hold the lead in the Pennsylvania State Bowling championship tournament with Pittsburgh and Hazleton first in two events each.

After taking first place in the Class B team event when the Pioneers team rolled up a 2,762 score, the Pittsburgh district tenpinners took first and fifth places in the doubles and fifth in the all-events yesterday.

Ed Soens and Art Bennett, of the Duquesne beer team, soared to the top in the doubles with a 1,238 total, 39 pins better than the scores rolled last week by George Shea and Charles Gammatori, of Scranton.

Soens hit 206, 235, 171—612 and Bennett rolled 225, 212, 234—671.

An Evening Thought
Nature's first and last lessons reach man to be kind, and even pride should sanction what our natures need—Mary B. Eddy

Just Folks
ALONE
They say the streams are rich with trout!
Of that I've not the slightest doubt. They always were this time of year And should be now that spring is here.
But since the boy has gone away At home I would much rather stay Than go for joys we both have known
And have to capture them, alone.
They say the hatches thick appear
And fishing's very good this year, But missing are the friends I knew, And gone that laughing youngster, too.
'Twould not be fun alone to try To find the most alluring fly; Alone, a fire of wood to make; Alone, at noon, my lunch to take!
Still in the attic rod and reel, And tackle, box and net and creel, Stay where we put them, he and I, Before the war dimmed every sky. Though trout are plentiful, they say, No heart have I to slip away. With him in some far-battle zone, I'd have to wade the stream alone.

Today's Talk
THAT YOU OF YOURS
Each of us is made up of a number of Selves. We are even scattered entities, each one suggestive of the one entity of which we are. Not alone does our mind and body identify us, but the books we read, the friends we have, the house we own, the boat we love, the hobbies we may have, the business we run and the ideas that we make known.
That you of yours is the world that you own, or that you may contact, even in the most out-of-the-way manner. There is something suggestive of this in the old saying: "Love me, love my dog."
A man's home may be very humble indeed, nevertheless it is his castle. He may be plainly dressed, and shy in bearing, but these may have little or nothing to do with his brilliance of mind or his creative faculties.
That you of yours is a realm apart. Trespassing upon it in an unkindly or unhappy manner is to hit the very heart of you. You don't have to think as he does, blame him for something beyond his control, laugh at some interest which he holds dear, or wantonly tread upon a flower in his garden of love and beauty. Hurt his friend and you hurt him.
That you of yours is scattered all about you. Its silent influence radiates, so that afar off something of you lives in some form or other—a created word, a deed, or perhaps a mere thought! We all keep spreading, but that individual something that is forever inseparable from us, holds to us, even though its thread may reach around the world.
It's the difference between that you of yours and this me of mine that moves to you and to me what significance we have. And it is this difference that makes every human being unique in himself. This fact alone should encourage us all to make the most of all that we are and have.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject "Serenity"

Burgess: John Bringman 99. Town council: George Wampler 96, David Ziegler 95, Andrew Polly 95, Ephraim Martin 92, George Christman 96.

Street and road commissioners: Henry Culp (of P) 93, Jacob Culp 99.

School directors: Solomon Powers 105, H. D. Wattles 92.

Average Whig majority 37.

At a meeting of council May 9th, Samuel H. Buehler was appointed President and Robert G. Harper, clerk and treasurer.

Married: On the 9th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Stignbaker, Mr. Wm. C. Butler, of Baltimore, to Miss Agnes Kelly of this county.

On Wednesday by the Rev. Mr. Dietz, Mr. John J. Weirich, to Miss Matilda M. Hoffman, both of Perry county, and lately of this place.

Death of Mr. Brinkerhoff: In the House of Representatives of the U. States, on Thursday, Mr. Potter of Ohio, announced the death of his colleague, Henry R. Brinkerhoff. He died at his residence on the 30th of April. He was born in Adams county, Pennsylvania. At an early age he went to New York and afterwards emigrated to Ohio. He died at the age of 57 years, in the faith of the Presbyterian church.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.
Excursion.—Quite a number of young folks on Tuesday evening, went to Hanover in a special train with the ladies and gentlemen who had engaged to give a concert in that place, the excursionists filling two large passenger cars. The programme of the concert had been arranged to come off in Agricultural Hall in this place, but it was abandoned, when an invitation was received to give the concert in Hanover, in aid of the Sabbath School of St. Mark's Lutheran church.

At the close of the exercises, a number of the visitors repaired to the residence of Mrs. Nail, where an elegant entertainment had been provided by some whole-souled ladies, and which took the party by surprise. The party reached Gettysburg before 12 o'clock.

Married: Eicholtz-Diehl — In the Evangelical Lutheran church, New Oxford, on the 13th inst., by Rev. Dr. Hauer, Jacob Eicholtz, Esq., to Miss Clara M., daughter of Jacob Diehl, Esq., all of this county.

Silk-Sampson.—On the 18th of February, at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. C. S. Evans, Mr. John-Silk, formerly of this county, to Miss Ruth G. Sampson, of Han county, Ohio.

Corpus Christi.—We learn that this church festival occurs this year on Thursday, May 27th. Preparations are being made at the Conowago Chapel for the annual celebration.

Water Company.—The election for managers of this company, was held on Saturday and resulted as follows:
Managers — George W. McClellan, H. J. Stahl, M. Eichelberger, E. B. Buehler and S. R. Russell.

The company is in a very prosperous condition its regular dividend being about twelve per cent The stock is much in request.

Wanted.—A strong young woman, who understands the care of milk, cows, garden work, etc. Apply to Mr. Howell, near Gettysburg Spring.

The Pacific Railroad Completed.—The great event of the day was the completion of the Pacific railroad on Monday. The road was commenced about three years ago, but has been pushed with an energy and success unparalleled in the history of railroad construction. At Promontory Summit, Utah Territory, the walnut tie and silver rail were laid, and the golden spike was driven which form the connecting link of the Central and Union Pacific railroads, and the great inter-oceanic route is completed, binding the shores of the Atlantic and Pacific in indissoluble bonds. While the last strokes of the hammer were falling, the telegraph was simultaneously repeating them in all the large cities of the country. In New York the great event was commemorated by the firing of a salute and a jubilee service in Trinity church.

It will be possible to make the trip from Baltimore to San Francisco, a distance of 3,178 miles in six days.

DRUGLESS WAY TO LURE SLEEP IS DESCRIBED
By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE (Associated Press Science Editor) PHILADELPHIA, May 15 — A drugless method of inducing sleep by reducing the salt in diet was reported to the American Psychiatric Association today by Dr. Michael M. Miller, of the U. S. Marine hospital, Ellis Island, New York.

The low-salt diet was tried on 12 men. Six had been sleepless from morphine addiction, six from a variety of ordinary causes, not specified by Dr. Miller.

Eleven found relief. In two to three weeks they began even to take afternoon naps, unheard of in their personal experiences. The 12th man had bad effects from lack of salt and the experiment was discontinued for him.

Salt and Excitability
Dr. Miller explained that the common experience of people who take sleeping medicines, when they fail to get the sleep expected, led him and his associates to look for a drugless method.

Low salt diet was chosen because of scientific experiments which showed that salt tends to rouse excitability of human nerves. He pointed out that lack of salt has perils, such as dizziness, trembling, nausea, apathy, fatigue and muscular weakness.

But in the 11 men it did not have these bad effects. He said that low-salt diet should not be attempted without medical advice.

The Urge To Escape
Another angle of sleep, narcolepsy a little-understood condition in which men during battle have fallen asleep while shells exploded around them was reported by Major Max Levin of the Thayer General Hospital, U. S. Medical Corps, Nashville, Tenn.

He told of 25 soldiers in this war who fell asleep on sentry duty. Four were malingersers. Nineteen were careless, they had insufficient sleep before going on duty.

The other two had narcolepsy, a condition not under their control.

Narcolepsy is a mystery. But it is commonplace. Falling asleep in church is sometimes due to narcolepsy. This sleep he said is caused by the urge to escape what the preacher is saying.

Flashes of Life
IT'S SPRING TOO
New York (AP) — Vincent Corea, 11, and his brother, Charles 10, don't like to go to the dentist.

Their mother started them out Saturday for Polyclinic hospital, Dental clinic, but they went to Central Park instead, and spent the night in a cardboard box behind the monkey cage while police were searching for them, Frank Corea, 14, found his brothers yesterday.

Their punishment? They have to go to the dentist today.

State To Sue For Snuff Fortune Tax
Harrisburg, Pa., May 15 (AP) — Attorney General James H. Duff said today that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will file a suit "most any time now" to collect in taxes $24,000,000 of the $30,000,000 Philadelphia snuff fortune of Mrs. Henrietta Schafer Garrett—a fortune claimed by thousands of persons.

Duff said that "if no heirs are proved, the balance will be escheated. The action will be taken, he explained, under 1943 laws which empower the state to collect an 80 per cent property tax on estates not disposed of by wills and remaining unsettled after seven years and which ban new claims after seven years of the death of the testator.

More than 26,000 persons from every state in the union and 29 foreign countries have claimed the estate of Mrs. Garrett, who died more than ten years ago. Her only known will made bequests of $62,000.

RAID COCK FIGHT
Waynesburg, Pa., May 15 (AP)—State police raided a cock fighting arena near here yesterday and arrested seven alleged operators. Police Cpl. George H. Benson said bodies of four dead roosters were found and 43 other birds were confiscated. The seven will be arraigned, Benson said, on charges of gambling and cruelty to animals.

CHINESE FORCE REGAINS PART OF BURMA ROAD
By RICHARD C. BERGHOLZ Associated Press War Editor
Large Chinese forces have launched an offensive from southwestern China to regain an important portion of the old Burma road and to join Allied troops driving across northern Burma. A juncture would re-open an overland supply route to China.

The Chinese high command announced today U. S. 14th Airforce planes supported the drive which opened May 10 and carried the Chinese troops across the Salween river in western Yunnan province at many points.

Patrols Advance
Coincident with China's announcement of the western offensive, Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's Allied headquarters in Burma retained patrols have stabbed within 22 miles of Myitkina in the closest land strike to that key enemy base since the drive across northern Burma towards the Burma road began.

Far to the northwest, a Chinese counter-attack cracked Japan's newly-won grip on the Peking-Hankow railroad but 75 miles west of the railroad Nipponese forces are reported to have fought their way into the historic city of Loyang from three directions.

Chungking said Chinese troops captured Suiping on the vital north-south railroad and have surrounded a Japanese force at Chumaitien on the railroad five miles south of Suiping. The invaders completed their conquest of the last 150-mile segment of the supply line last week.

Led by 200 tanks, Japanese stormed Loyang from the east, north and northwest but the Chinese high command said the enemy is being held despite heavy casualties on both sides.

Canadian Frigate Sunk; 121 Missing
Ottawa, May 15 (AP)—The Canadian frigate Valleyfield has been torpedoed and sunk while on escort duty in the north Atlantic with five dead, 121 missing and 38 survivors, it was announced today.

Listed among the missing was the captain, Lt. Comdr. D. T. English of Halifax, whose wife lives at New Bedford, Mass. No Americans were listed in the casualty list.

Built at Quebec, the Valleyfield was commissioned last December and was the first American frigate to be sunk.

The United States make about 3,300 tons, or 82 carloads of stamps every year.

OUSTED PRIEST IN SECLUSION; ACCEPTS ORDER
Springfield, Mass., May 15 (AP)—The Rev. Stanislaus Orlemanski, Polish-American priest suspended after his return from a flying trip to Moscow, was "either in or on his way to a monastery," the Rev. George A. Shea, chancellor of the Springfield diocese, said today.

Springfield, Mass., May 15 (AP)—Rev. Stanislaus Orlemanski, for 22 years pastor of Our Lady of the Rosary church, remained in seclusion today, apparently reconciled to the Bishop's suspension which greeted him on his return home from a flying "mission to Moscow."

Indication he had accepted the suspension order imposed by Bishop Thomas M. O'Leary came yesterday when the 54-year-old Polish-American priest failed to appear at four masses in the church which he designed and once donned laborer's clothes to help build.

Bishop O'Leary imposed the canonical penalties after Fr. Orlemanski failed to obtain permission to leave his church for the trip to Moscow and a conference with Russian Premier Josef Stalin. He was ordered to go to a monastery for an indefinite period and was stripped of his priestly privileges for the interim.

Earlier Fr. Orlemanski charged that he was being "crucified" for his church after his unprecedented Moscow visit from which he brought what he announced was a signed agreement of Stalin to permit freedom of religion in Poland, the Ukraine and all the Russias.

Stalin Silent
By Henry C. Cassidy
Moscow, May 15 (AP)—Premier Stalin has heard about the suspension of the Rev. Stanislaus Orlemanski, Springfield, Mass., Catholic priest who recently conferred with him twice, but whether the Soviet leader was irritated, as the priest said he would be, was not made known immediately.

The newspaper Pravda published three dispatches relating to the sequel to Father Orlemanski's return to the United States and the publication of Stalin's answers to his questions on relations between the Kremlin and the Vatican.

All three dispatches were worded objectively and gave no indication of the Kremlin's reaction to events. Foreigners believe that Stalin's statement to the priest was a significant utterance of the Kremlin's attitude.

Rev. Orlemanski's Superior
Bishop Thomas M. O'Leary (above) of Springfield, Mass., indefinitely suspended the priestly privileges of Rev. Stanislaus Orlemanski only a few hours after the Catholic priest has returned to his parish from a conference in Moscow with Premier Stalin. Bishop O'Leary is Bishop of the Springfield diocese.

Asks Public's Help In Ceiling Price Check
Pittsburgh, May 15 (AP)—An appeal for public cooperation in a drive to halt restaurant price ceiling violations has been made by Alvin J. Williams, district OPA director for the nine-county Pittsburgh area.

He reported among 5,322 restaurants inspected recently, 648 were found to be selling food above ceiling prices, and reminded the public that any person overcharged in a restaurant is privileged to sue for $50 damages, plus attorney's fees and expenses.

"It promises to have great effect," he said of the drive, "in places where outrageous liquor price increases are reported."

LOCAL WOMEN AT STATE MEET
Harrisburg, May 15 (AP)—Several hundred women came to the state capital today for the two-day annual convention of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs.

Awarding of prizes to winners of eight contests sponsored by the division of literature, department of fine arts, of which Mrs. Paul Koenig, of Spring Grove, is chairman, was arranged for the opening session this afternoon.

Mrs. Koenig, who is also president-elect, will be installed tomorrow as head of the federation. Mrs. Alfred A. Crooks, of Norwood, retiring president, will preside at the sessions.

Mrs. LaFell Dickinson, of Keene, N. H., president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, will be guest of honor at a banquet tonight.

Mrs. Frank Kramer, a member of the credentials committee, Mrs. J. Walter Coleman, Mrs. R. S. Saby and Mrs. A. Harrison Barr, of the Gettysburg club, attended sessions today.

MUCH LISTENING IN ON TELEPHONE TALK AT CAPITAL
By JAMES MARLOW AND GEORGE ZIELKE
Washington, May 15 (AP)—When Washington does something, it's on the grand scale.

For instance: You never can be sure just how many people are listening in when you telephone a government official.

It's standard practice for the stenographer to listen in on all calls if the boss is at all important in his own little balliwick.

If he's a big shot, there may be a recording machine to take down the whole conversation.

Proficient Stenos
The phones are provided with cut-out buttons so the steno can shut off the mouthpiece. Then she listens and takes notes without the person on the other end hearing suspicious noises.

Some stenos get so proficient they can listen in, carry on a side conversation with somebody else in the office or read a magazine.

After a while the girls get used to the language some folks use in talking to government officials — and the language some officials use in talking back.

But that's only a starter. There's no end to the fancy connections and talkie-talkie hookups around these places.

Every desk has an assortment of push buttons, dials, tabs, switches, bells and buzzers. Some even have special gongs. And practically all have green or red or white or blue lights that flash on when:

A Great Delight
(a) The boss is talking on the phone;
(b) There's another call waiting for him on another line;
(c) The big boss wants him; or
(d) His wife is angry and he'd better send her some flowers.

The top officials take great delight in these contraptions.

Treasury Secretary Morgenthau, for example, has a special loudspeaker on his desk. When he's out of town, he calls in and has his whole staff gather round. Then his voice comes over the loudspeaker so all can hear, and he summons underlings to the phone in relays.

White House Story
Then there are special telephones in some places that connect directly with the White House. In fact, that's the point of one of the popular stories going around town.

It seems a cabinet member had a few people in and it was getting late, so he picked up one of his telephones and told the person who answered to send up some sandwiches and coffee.

"The person who answered seemed a little surprised, but finally said, 'O. K., but it'll take a little while.'"

The delay was considerable. At long last, some White House emissaries showed up with the food, touted over from the President's kitchen.

An Evening Thought

Nature's first and last lessons teach man to be kind, and even pride should sanction what our nature needs.—Mary B. Eddy

Just Folks

ALONE
They say the streams are rich with trout!
Of that I've not the slightest doubt.
They always were this time of year
And should be now that spring is here.

But since the boy has gone away
At home I would much rather stay
Than go for joys we both have known.
And have to capture them, alone.

They say the hatches thick appear
And fishing's very good this year.
But missing are the friends I knew,
And gone that laughing youngster, too.

'Twould not be fun alone to try
To find the most alluring fly:
Alone, a fire of wood to make;
Alone, at noon, my lunch to take!

Still in the attic rod and reel,
And tackle box and net and creel,
Stay where we put them, he and I,
Before the war dimmed every sky.
Though trout are plentiful, they say,
No heart have I to slip away.
With him in some far battle zone,
I'd have to wade the stream alone.

Today's Talk

THAT YOU OF YOURS

Each of us is made up of a number of selves. We are even scattered entities, each one suggestive of the one entity of which we are. Not alone does our mind and body identify us, but the books we read, the friends we have, the house we own, the boat we love, the hobbies we may have, the business we run and the ideas that we make known.

That you of yours is the world that you own, or that you may contact, even in the most out-of-the-way manner. There is something suggestive of this in the old saying: "Love me, love my dog."

A man's home may be very humble indeed, nevertheless it is his castle. He may be plainly dressed, and shy in bearing, but these may have little or nothing to do with his brilliance of mind or his creative faculties.

That you of yours is a realm apart. Transcending upon it in an unkindly or unhappy manner is to hit the very heart of you. You don't have to think as he does, blame him for something beyond his control, laugh at some interest which he holds dear, or wantonly tread upon a flower in his garden of love and beauty. Hurt his friend and you hurt him.

That you of yours is scattered all about you. Its silent influence radiates, so that afar off something of you lives in some form or other—a created word, a deed, or perhaps a mere thought! We all keep spreading, but that individual something that is forever inseparable from us, holds to us, even though its thread may reach around the world.

It's the difference between that you of yours and this me of mine that gives to you and to me what significance we have. And it is this difference that makes every human being unique in himself. This fact alone should encourage us all to make the most of all that we are and have.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Serenity"

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Borough Election: The election for officers of the borough of Gettysburg took place on Tuesday, and resulted as below. The election was not so large by 120 votes as usual, which accounts for the comparative smallness of the majority.

Whig

Burgess: George Arnold, 130.
Town Council: John Houck 129, S. H. Buehler 136, Nicholas Codori 135, George Heck 135, John Brown 135.
Street and road commissioners: John Adair 135, John L. Tate 129.
School Directors: Thomas Warren 139, Hugh Denwiddie 132.

Loco

Burgess: John Bringham, 99.
Town council: George Wampler 96, David Ziegler 95, Andrew Polly 95, Ephraim Martin 92, George Christman 98.
Street and road commissioners: Henry Culp (of P) 93, Jacob Culp 99.
School directors: Solomon Powers 108, H. D. Wattles 92.
Average Whig majority 37.

At a meeting of council May 9th, Samuel H. Buehler was appointed President and Robert G. Harper, clerk and treasurer.

Married: On the 9th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Stignbauer, Mr. Wm. C. Butler, of Baltimore, to Miss Agnes Kelly of this county.
On Wednesday by the Rev. Mr. Dietz, Mr. John J. Weirich, to Miss Matilda M. Hoffman, both of Perry county, and lately of this place.

Death of Mr. Brinkerhoff: In the House of Representatives of the U. States, on Thursday, Mr. Potter of Ohio, announced the death of his colleague, Henry R. Brinkerhoff. He died at his residence on the 30th of April. He was born in Adams county, Pennsylvania. At an early age he went to New York and afterwards emigrated to Ohio. He died at the age of 57 years, in the faith of the Presbyterian church.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Excursion.—Quite a number of young folks on Tuesday evening, went to Hanover in a special train with the ladies and gentlemen, who had engaged to give a concert in that place, the excursionists filling two large passenger cars. The programme of the concert had been arranged to come off in Agricultural Hall in this place, but it was abandoned, when an invitation was received to give the concert in Hanover, in aid of the Sabbath School of St. Mark's Lutheran church.
At the close of the exercises, a number of the visitors repaired to the residence of Mrs. Nail, where an elegant entertainment had been provided by some whole-souled ladies, and which took the party by surprise. The party reached Gettysburg before 12 o'clock.

Married: Eicholtz-Diehl.—In the Evangelical Lutheran church, New Oxford, on the 13th inst., by Rev. Dr. Hauer, Jacob Eicholtz, Esq., to Miss Clara M. daughter of Jacob Diehl, Esq., all of this county.
Silk-Sampson.—On the 18th of February, at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. C. S. Evans, Mr. John Silk, formerly of this county, to Miss Ruth G. Sampson, of Han county, Ohio.

Corpus Christi.—We learn that this church festival occurs this year on Thursday, May 27th. Preparations are being made at the Conewago Chapel for the annual celebration.

Water Company.—The election for managers of this company, was held on Saturday and resulted as follows:

Managers—George W. McClellan, H. J. Stahl, M. Eichelberger, E. B. Buehler and S. R. Russell.
The company is in a very prosperous condition its regular dividend being about twelve per cent. The stock is much in request.

Wanted.—A strong young woman, who understands the care of milk, cows, garden work, etc. Apply to Mr. Howell, near Gettysburg Spring.

The Pacific Railroad Completed: The great event of the day was the completion of the Pacific railroad on Monday. The road was commenced about three years ago, but has been pushed with an energy and success unparalleled in the history of railroad construction. At Promontory Summit, Utah Territory, the walnut tie and silver rail were laid, and the golden spike was driven which form the connecting link of the Central and Union Pacific railroads, and the great inter-oceanic route is completed, binding the shores of the Atlantic and Pacific in indissoluble bonds. While the last strokes of the hammer were falling, the telegraph was simultaneously repeating them in all the large cities of the country. In New York the great event was commemorated by the firing of a salute and a jubilee service in Trinity church.

It will be possible to make the trip from Baltimore to San Francisco, a distance of 3,178 miles in six days.
Oklahoma gets its name from an Indian name meaning "land of red men."

DRUGLESS WAY TO LURE SLEEP IS DESCRIBED

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
(Associated Press Science Editor)
Philadelphia, May 15.—A drugless method of inducing sleep by reducing the salt in diet was reported to the American Psychiatric Association today by Dr. Michael M. Miller of the U. S. Marine hospital, Ellis Island, New York.

The low-salt diet was tried on 12 men. Six had been sleepless from morphine addiction, six from a variety of ordinary causes, not specified by Dr. Miller.

Eleven found relief. In two to three weeks they began even to take afternoon naps, unheard of in their personal experiences. The 12th man had bad effects from lack of salt and the experiment was discontinued for him.

Salt and Excitability

Dr. Miller explained that the common experience of people who take sleeping medicines, when they fail to get the sleep expected, led him and his associates to look for a drugless method.

Low salt diet was chosen because of scientific experiments which showed that salt tends to rouse excitability of human nerves. He pointed out that lack of salt has perils, such as dizziness, trembling, nausea, apathy, fatigue and muscular weakness.

But in the 11 men it did not have these bad effects. He said that low-salt diet should not be attempted without medical advice.

The Urge To Escape

Another angle of sleep, narcolepsy, a little-understood condition in which men during battle have fallen asleep while shells exploded around them was reported by Major Max Levin of the Thayer General hospital, U. S. Medical Corps, Nashville, Tenn.

He told of 25 soldiers in this war who fell asleep on sentry duty. Four were malingers. Nineteen were careless, they had insufficient sleep before going on duty.

The other two had narcolepsy, a condition not under their control.

Narcolepsy is a mystery. But it is commonplace. Falling asleep in church is sometimes due to narcolepsy. This sleep he said is caused by the urge to escape what the preacher is saying.

State To Sue For Snuff Fortune Tax

Harrisburg, Pa., May 15 (AP)—Attorney General James H. Duff said today that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will file a suit "most any time now" to collect in taxes $24,000,000 of the $30,000,000 Philadelphia snuff fortune of Mrs. Henrietta Schaffer Garrett—a fortune claimed by thousands of persons.

Duff said that "if no heirs are proved, the balance will be escheated. The action will be taken, he explained, under 1943 laws which empower the state to collect an 80 per cent property tax on estates not disposed of by wills and remaining unsettled after seven years and which ban new claims after seven years of the death of the testator. More than 26,000 persons from every state in the union and 29 foreign countries have claimed the estate of Mrs. Garrett, who died more than ten years ago. Her only known will made bequests of $62,000.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of Mrs. Ida May Brame, who departed this life one year ago May 10, age 68 years.

This month recalls sad memory of our dear one gone to rest. We hope some day to meet her where we find eternal rest.

Her smiling face and pleasant ways are a pleasure to recall. She had a kindly word for each and died beloved by all.

A precious one from us has gone. A voice we loved is stilled; A place is vacant in our home. Which never can be filled.

God in his wisdom has recalled. The one his love had given. And though the body slumber's here, The soul is safe in heaven.

Some day we hope to meet her. Some day we know not when. To clasp her hand in the better land.

Never to part again. Sadly missed by her husband and children.

S. Sgt. Felix Wins Air Medal, Oak Leaves

S. Sgt. Raymond A. Felix, one of four sons of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Felix, McSherrystown, now in the service of their country, has been awarded the Air Medal and two Oak Leaf clusters for participation of an undisclosed number of bombing missions over Hitler's Europe, according to word received by his parents, to whom he has forwarded the medal.

Sergeant Felix, who is 26 years old, is a radio operator on a four-engine Liberator bomber, and is a member of the oldest Liberator unit in the Eighth Air Force.

Staff Sergeant Felix entered the armed forces on August 1, 1942. He trained at St. Petersburg, Fla.; Sioux Falls, S. D.; Las Vegas, Nev.; Pocatello and Boise, Idaho. He received his radio operator's and mechanic's diploma from the radio school at Sioux Falls on March 24, 1943.

Sergeant Felix has been in England since late in September. His brother, Cpl. Francis J. Felix, 32, is with the Engineers in England.

Another brother, Sgt. Paul Nolan Felix, 34, is with an infantry unit in the Marshalls. The fourth brother in the service is Norbert Felix, 22, a corporal in the quartermaster corps of the Army Air Forces at Fort Myers, Florida.

COMMANDO GETS ANOTHER MEDAL

Pittsburgh, May 15 (AP)—Winning another "first" in the Italian theatre of war left Tech. Sgt. Kelly unflinched today, and he went on about his business of visiting war plants and telling the "men—and women—of steel" the part they are playing in the war effort.

Kelly, first enlisted man in the Italian theatre to win the Congressional Medal of Honor, yesterday was awarded, in absentia, the Silver Star for heroism in Italy.

That made him the first enlisted man to receive both decorations in that theatre.

But today, his mother said she didn't know where he was.

"He didn't say where he was going when he left early this morning. He's going to give some more speeches in the steel mills today, he said, but he didn't tell me just where," said the graying, virtually deaf mother of seven service sons.

"He was home with me all day yesterday, the first time since he got back he had had a 'day off' from this hero business," she added.

Mrs. Kelly said Charles had been granted five days more than his regular furlough and that he would attend a ceremony in Washington when Capt. Robert A. Johnson comes back to America. Captain Johnson has knocked down 27 Nazi planes in combat over Europe.

Father Orlenskis Arrives Home

Rev. Stanislaus Orlenskis is greeted by children at the Union station in Springfield, Mass., when he arrived on the last leg of a flying trip from Moscow where he twice conferred with Premier Josef Stalin. Shortly after he arrived at his home; it was announced that his priestly privileges had been indefinitely suspended by Bishop Thomas M. O'Leary of Springfield, Mass. (AP Wirephoto.)

NEW DESTROYER TO HONOR SHEA

New York, May 15 (AP)—A 2,200-ton super-destroyer bearing the name of the late Commander John J. Shea, whose letter to his son, "Jackie," won national acclaim, will slide down the ways at the Bethlehem Steel Company Staten Island shipyard, May 20.

Mrs. John J. Shea, of Arlington, Mass., widow of the commander, will sponsor the ship and John Richard "Jackie" Shea, now six years old, will attend.

The commander, who was killed in action aboard the USS Wasp when that carrier was torpedoed by Japanese forces in the Pacific, September 15, 1942, wrote an appealing letter to his little son.

"Be a good boy and grow up to be a good young man, be a leader in everything good in life," the letter admonished "Jackie."

"Be a good Catholic and you can't help being a good American. Play fair always. If I don't get back, you will have to be mother's protector because you will be the only one she has."

"Pray for your daddy to come back and if it is God's will that he does not, be the kind of boy and man your daddy wants you to be."

9 HURT IN CRASH

Altoona, Pa., May 15 (AP)—Nine persons were injured yesterday when a bus carrying Claysburg brickyard workers collided with a truck near Newry (Blair county) and both vehicles went over a nine-foot bank into a creek.

CORPORAL KILLED

Savannah, Ga., May 15 (AP)—Cpl. Richard L. Chaney of New Brighton, Pa., was among 11 crewmen killed in the crash of a Liberator bomber near Batista Field, Cuba, Saturday. The Chatham Field public relations office here announced.

LEGAL NOTICE

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF ADAMS COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA
No. August Term, 1944.
Joseph A. Scott
vs.
The heirs at law of Zachariah Sanders.

To the heirs at law of Zachariah Sanders and all parties in interest in the encumbrance or charge against lands of Joseph A. Scott in Hamiltonian Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania:

You are each of you hereby notified that Joseph A. Scott on May 13, 1944, presented in the Court of Common Pleas of Adams County, Pennsylvania, his petition alleging that he is the owner of a tract of land containing fifteen acres and one hundred and thirty-six perches, more or less in Hamiltonian Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania; that on March 1, 1944, Zachariah Sanders being seized as in fee of said premises died intestate leaving to survive him his widow, Mary J. Sanders and the following children and heirs at law, to-wit: Jennie E. Nunemaker, John Sanders, Maggie Reed and Annie Linn; that by deed, dated February 28, 1906, the said Mary J. Sanders as attorney of Robert F. Sanders, subject to the one-third of the purchase money therefor to-wit: The sum of $216.67 remaining in said property as a widow's dower, the interest on the same to be paid annually to Mary J. Sanders, widow of Zachariah Sanders and upon her death the principal sum to be paid to the heirs at law of Zachariah Sanders; that by deed dated April 1, 1909 and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Adams County, Pennsylvania, in Deed Book 68 at page 287, the said Mary J. Sanders and Robert F. Sanders, her husband, sold and conveyed said premises to Sally A. Shrock, subject to said exception, reservation, encumbrance or charge; that said premises thereafter became vested in said Sally A. Shrock; that twenty-one years and upward have elapsed after the principal of such encumbrance or charge has been due; that no payment has been made within the period of twenty-one years last past on account of such encumbrance or charge and that no sufficient release, acquittance or acknowledgment of payment of such is of record in the County of Adams.

Said petition contained prayer for an order decreeing and directing that the land described in said petition be released and discharged from said encumbrance or charge and the payment thereof and that a copy of said petition and said decree be entered of record in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Adams County.

Pursuant to said petition the Court on May 13, 1944, entered an order directing that notice be given to all parties in interest in said encumbrance or charge and requiring that you and each of you appear in Court at ten o'clock A. M., June 12, 1944, to appear and claim payment for or on account of such encumbrance or charge.

By order of the Court:

NATION AT WAR HONORS MOTHERS

Chicago, May 15 (AP)—The nation at war paused yesterday to pay mothers tribute in ceremonies and special events.

Mrs. Esther McCabe of Lilly, Pa., mother of 10 sons in the armed forces, was honored in Indianapolis as the nation's No. 1 war mother. She was presented a certificate as the American mother having the most sons in the service at a ceremony sponsored by the American war mothers.

In Chicago, the mothers of the country's three outstanding air heroes broadcast messages of courage to all American mothers and their sons on a "Mothers for Victory" broadcast over the Blue network.

They were Mrs. Patsy Gentile, Piqua, Ohio, mother of Capt. Don Gentile, who has destroyed 30 Nazi planes; Mrs. Dora Bong, Poplar, Wis., whose son, Major Richard Bong, knocked out 27 Jap planes, and Mrs. L. B. Johnson, Lawton, Okla., mother of Capt. Robert A. Johnson, who brought down 27 enemy planes over Europe.

Major Bong took part in the program

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of Mrs. Ida May Brame, who departed this life one year ago May 10, age 68 years.

This month recalls sad memory of our dear one, gone to rest. We hope some day to meet her, where we find eternal rest. Her smiling face and pleasant ways are a pleasure to recall. She had a kindly word for each and died beloved by all.

A precious one from us has gone. A voice we loved is stilled; A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled. God in his wisdom has recalled. The one his love had given. And though the body slumber's here, The soul is safe in heaven. Some day we hope to meet her. Some day we know not when. To clasp her hand in the better land.

Never to part again. Sadly missed by her husband and children.

S. Sgt. Felix Wins Air Medal, Oak Leaves

S. Sgt. Raymond A. Felix, one of four sons of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Felix, McKnightstown, now in the service of their country, has been awarded the Air Medal and two Oak Leaf clusters for participation of an undisclosed number of bombing missions over Hitler's Europe, according to word received by his parents, to whom he has forwarded the medal.

Sergeant Felix, who is 26 years old, is a radio operator on a four-engine Liberator bomber, and is a member of the oldest Liberator unit in the Eighth Air Force.

Staff Sergeant Felix entered the armed forces on August 1, 1942. He trained at St. Petersburg, Fla.; Sioux Falls, S. D.; Las Vegas, Nev.; Pocatello and Boise, Idaho. He received his radio operator's and mechanic's diploma from the radio school at Sioux Falls on March 24, 1943.

Sergeant Felix has been in England since late in September. His brother, Cpl. Francis J. Felix, 32, is with the Engineers in England. Another brother, Sgt. Paul Nolan Felix, 34, is with an infantry unit in the Marshalls. The fourth brother in the service is Norbert Felix, 22, a corporal in the quartermaster corps of the Army Air Forces at Fort Myers, Florida.

COMMANDO GETS ANOTHER MEDAL

Pittsburgh, May 15 (AP)—Winning another "first" in the Italian theatre of war left Tech. Sgt. Kelly unruffled today, and he went on about his business of visiting war plants and telling the "men-and-women-of steel" the part they are playing in the war effort.

Kelly, first enlisted man in the Italian theatre to win the Congressional Medal of Honor, yesterday was awarded, in absentia, the Silver Star for heroism in Italy.

That made him the first enlisted man to receive both decorations in that theatre.

But today, his mother said she didn't know where he was.

"He didn't say where he was going when he left early this morning. He's going to give some more speeches in the steel mills today, he said, but he didn't tell me just where," said the graying, virtually deaf mother of seven service sons.

"He was home with me all day yesterday, the first time since he got back he had had a 'day off' from this hero business," she added.

Mrs. Kelly said Charles had been granted five days more than his regular furlough and that he would attend a ceremony in Washington when Capt. Robert A. Johnson comes back to America. Captain Johnson has knocked down 27 Nazi planes in combat over Europe.

3,300 STRIKERS IGNORE ORDER

Detroit, May 15 (AP)—Approximately 3,300 striking foremen, seeking recognition of their independent union, remained away from their jobs in 13 Detroit area war plants today, despite a War Labor Board directive calling upon them to return to work this morning.

The three-week strike resulted in the closing last Friday of the Packard Motor Car company, producing Rolls-Royce aircraft engines and power plants for PT boats. More than 30,000 Packard workers were sent home.

National officers of the Foreman's Association of America were called into session this forenoon to consider action on the WLB directive.

In addition to Packard, the larger companies affected are the Briggs Manufacturing company, Hudson Motor Car company, Murray Corporation of America, Gar Wood Industries and Aeronautical Products, incorporated.

Meanwhile production was resumed today in the rolling mills unit of the Ford Motor company at River Rouge after a short strike by about 1,200 employees had closed the operations. The workers, members of the United Automobile Workers (CIO) reported they were protesting the disciplining of a union committeeman.

BANQUET SPEAKERS

Pittsburgh, May 15 (AP)—Robert E. Hanegan, Democratic national chairman, and Sen. Samuel D. Jackson (D-Ind.) will address the Jefferson day dinner of Allegheny County Democrats here Wednesday evening.

LEGAL NOTICE

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF ADAMS COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA No. August Term, 1944. Joseph A. Scott

The heirs at law of Zachariah Sanders, deceased.

To the heirs at law of Zachariah Sanders, deceased, and all parties in interest in the encumbrance or charge against lands of Joseph A. Scott in Hamilton Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania: You and each of you hereby are notified that Joseph A. Scott on May 13, 1944, presented in the Court of Common Pleas of Adams County, Pennsylvania, his petition alleging that he is the owner of a tract of land containing fifteen acres and one hundred and thirty six perches, more or less in Hamilton Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania; that on March 1, 1901, Zachariah Sanders being seized as in fee of said premises died intestate leaving to survive him his widow, Mary J. Sanders and the following children and heirs at law, to-wit: Jennie E. Nuncemaker, John Sanders, Maggie Reed and Annie Linn; that by deed dated February 28, 1905, said Mary J. Sanders as attorney in fact for said heirs sold and conveyed said real estate to Mary J. Sanders, wife of Robert F. Sanders, subject to the one-third of the purchase money therefor to-wit: The sum of $516.67 remaining in said property as a widow's dower, the interest on the same to be paid annually to Mary J. Sanders, widow of Zachariah Sanders; that by deed dated April 1, 1909, and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Adams County, Pennsylvania, in Book 68 at page 587, the said Mary J. Sanders and Robert F. Sanders, her husband, sold and conveyed said premises to Sally A. Shrock, subject to said exception, reservation, encumbrance or charge; that said premises thereafter became vested in the said Joseph A. Scott; that twenty-one years and upward have elapsed after the principal of such encumbrance or charge became due; that no payment has been made within the period of twenty-one years last past on account of such encumbrance or charge and that no sufficient release, acquittance or acknowledgment of payment of such is of record in the County of Adams.

Said petition contained a prayer for an order decreeing and directing that the land described in said petition be released and discharged from said encumbrance or charge and the payment thereof and that a copy of said petition and said decree be entered of record in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Adams County.

Pursuant to said petition the Court on May 13, 1944, entered an order directing that notice be given to all parties in interest in said encumbrance or charge and requiring that you and each of you appear in Court at ten o'clock A. M., June 12, 1944, to appear and claim payment for or on account of such encumbrance or charge.

By order of the Court: JOHN E. MILLHIMES, Sheriff

Father Orlemanski Arrives Home

Rev. Stanislaus Orlemanski is greeted by children at the Union station in Springfield, Mass., when he arrived on the last leg of a flying trip from Moscow where he twice conferred with Premier Josef Stalin. Shortly after he arrived at his home it was announced that his priestly privileges had been indefinitely suspended by Bishop Thomas M. O'Leary of Springfield, Mass. (AP Wirephoto.)

NEW DESTROYER TO HONOR SHEA

New York, May 15 (AP)—A 2,200-ton super-destroyer bearing the name of the late Commander John J. Shea, whose letter to his son, "Jackie," won national acclaim, will slide down the ways at the Bethlehem Steel Company Staten Island shipyard, May 20.

Mrs. John J. Shea, of Arlington, Mass., widow of the commander, will sponsor the ship and John Richard "Jackie" Shea, now six years old, will attend.

The commander, who was killed in action aboard the USS Wasp when that carrier was torpedoed by Japanese forces in the Pacific, September 15, 1942, wrote an appealing letter to his little son.

"Be a good boy and grow up to be a good young man, be a leader in everything good in life," the letter admonished "Jackie."

"Be a good Catholic and you can't help being a good American. Play fair always. If I don't get back, you will have to be mother's protector because you will be the only one she has."

"Pray for your daddy to come back and if it is God's will that he does not, be the kind of boy and man your daddy wants you to be."

9 HURT IN CRASH

Altoona, Pa., May 15 (AP)—Nine persons were injured yesterday when a bus carrying Claysburg brickyard workers collided with a truck near Newry (Blair county) and both vehicles went over a nine-foot bank into a creek.

CORPORAL KILLED

Savannah, Ga., May 15 (AP)—Cpl. Richard L. Chaney of New Brighton, Pa., was among 11 crewmen killed in the crash of a Liberator bomber near Batista Field, Cuba, Saturday. The Chatham Field public relations office here announced.

NATION AT WAR HONORS MOTHERS

Chicago, May 15 (AP)—The nation at war paused yesterday to pay mothers tribute in ceremonies and special events.

Mrs. Esther McCabe of Lilly, Pa., mother of 10 sons in the armed forces, was honored in Indianapolis as the nation's No. 1 war mother. She was presented a certificate as the American mother having the most sons in the service at a ceremony sponsored by the American war mothers.

In Chicago, the mothers of the country's three outstanding air heroes broadcast messages of courage to all American mothers and their sons on a "Mothers for Victory" broadcast over the Blue network.

They were Mrs. Patsy Gentile, Piqua, Ohio, mother of Capt. Don Gentile, who has destroyed 30 Nazi planes; Mrs. Dora Bong, Poplar, Wis., whose son, Major Richard Bong, knocked out 27 Japanese planes, and Mrs. L. B. Johnson, Lawton, Okla., mother of Capt. Robert A. Johnson, who brought down 27 enemy planes over Europe.

Major Bong took part in the program here. Benjamin Franklin established the first circulating library in Philadelphia in 1731.

LADY IN A WHIRL

By Esther Valck Georgins

Chapter 15

"I wouldn't marry Zelda if she were the last woman on earth," said Pete vehemently.

"Why, Pete! You know you love her. Do you think I'm blind? You've loved her for ages."

Pete sat down on a flat rock and stretched his long legs out on the grass.

"Hah," he grinned. "Little, ole Miss Sherlock Holmes."

Cora's remark had been a shot in the dark but seeing his reaction she realized she had hit the truth.

But that, she thought, would be perfect.

In the meantime, however, there was O'Brien to contend with. Finally, "I have it!" she exclaimed. "I know what I'll do." She gathered up her fishing tackle and started for the house. "I'll fix his wagon," she threatened.

"Say, listen," called Pete to her retreating figure. "Hey, wait!"

Now, thought Pete, now we're in for a mess of some sort. Zelda was alone when Cora bounced onto the porch. "Whatever has happened to you?" she asked, seeing Cora's dripping clothes.

"I fell in the brook," said Cora shortly. "Where's that cop?"

"Do you mean Mr. O'Brien?" Zelda asked coldly.

"I certainly do. Where is he?"

"He's gone home."

"Oh," Cora was deflated. She had been ready for a skirmish and the enemy had disappeared. "Well, I suppose I might as well change my clothes."

She thought things over while she changed. . . . I must be slick about this, she thought. Somehow I've got to see O'Brien alone.

She heard Pete come in and then his voice and Zelda's on the porch. "Fool," she said aloud, "if he's in love with her why doesn't he tell her?"

She had an idea that O'Brien might call again that evening, but when dinner was through Zelda took a book and disappeared upstairs. Pete pounded the piano, finding his usual outlet for an emotional storm. Cora wandered around uneasily for a while and then drifted up the stairs to the upper porch.

Zelda was on the porch. "I was just thinking," Cora remarked, despite Zelda's evident uninterest. "I never thanked that cop for getting my dress and shoes. And now likely, I won't be able to. It isn't at all likely I'll ever see him again."

"Oh, yes, you will," Zelda assured her. "He's going to stop in tomorrow."

"Oh," said Cora. She had found some cards and was shuffling them vigorously. "Did he forget something?" she asked too innocently.

"No," Zelda turned a page. "Oh," Cora laid out the cards, snapping the corner of each. She peered at the ten of diamonds and sighed deeply.

"Go away, will you? Or else stop blowing off like that," Zelda commanded.

Cora got up with an air of injured dignity. "Very well," she said, "since I annoy you I'll go away." She gathered up the cards and left. She had found out what she wanted to know. O'Brien would be around tomorrow.

Cora lay awake long after she went to bed that night, perfecting her scheme to get rid of O'Brien. She had not the least doubt but that the patrolman was attracted by Zelda's money, and she had woven a plot which, she felt pretty sure would lessen his interest. Her idea was to get O'Brien alone and casually tell him that Zelda's fortune would divert into other channels unless she married Pete. This, of course, would be a rank falsehood, but Cora was not one to stop at a little thing like that if it would further Zelda's well being.

There was always the chance that he might ask Zelda to confirm this story—but it was a slim chance. It seemed hardly likely that any man would have the courage to ask such a pointed question of the woman he was supposed to love. Still, of course, he might do it. Just sort of offhand. Well, it was a chance she would have to risk.

She fell asleep finally, still wondering how she was going to get O'Brien alone long enough to tell him this tale.

No solution presented itself the next day and right after lunch she took a pill and started out to look for wild berries. She was only a few feet from the house, however, when Eglington called that she was wanted on the telephone.

She went back, grumbling. It was O'Brien. She was so surprised that she dropped the pill.

"Come and meet you?" she exclaimed. "But this is Miss Petit. It's Zelda you want to talk to, isn't it?"

O'Brien reassured her. "There's something I sort of want to talk over with you," he told her. "If you'll start walking down now I'll meet you before you get very far. I'd kinda like to talk to you private for a few minutes."

"Very well. I'll start right now." Cora replaced the receiver slowly. The sudden turn events had taken bewildered her for a moment and she rubbed her nose fiercely.

"What do you suppose he wants?" she asked herself out loud.

But, after all, here was the solution to the one part of her plan that had bothered her, and she started out to meet O'Brien. There was no need to conceal the direction of her jaunt. Zelda was in her room, and Pete had wandered up the mountain more than two hours before with his music note book under his arm and the light of inspiration in his eyes.

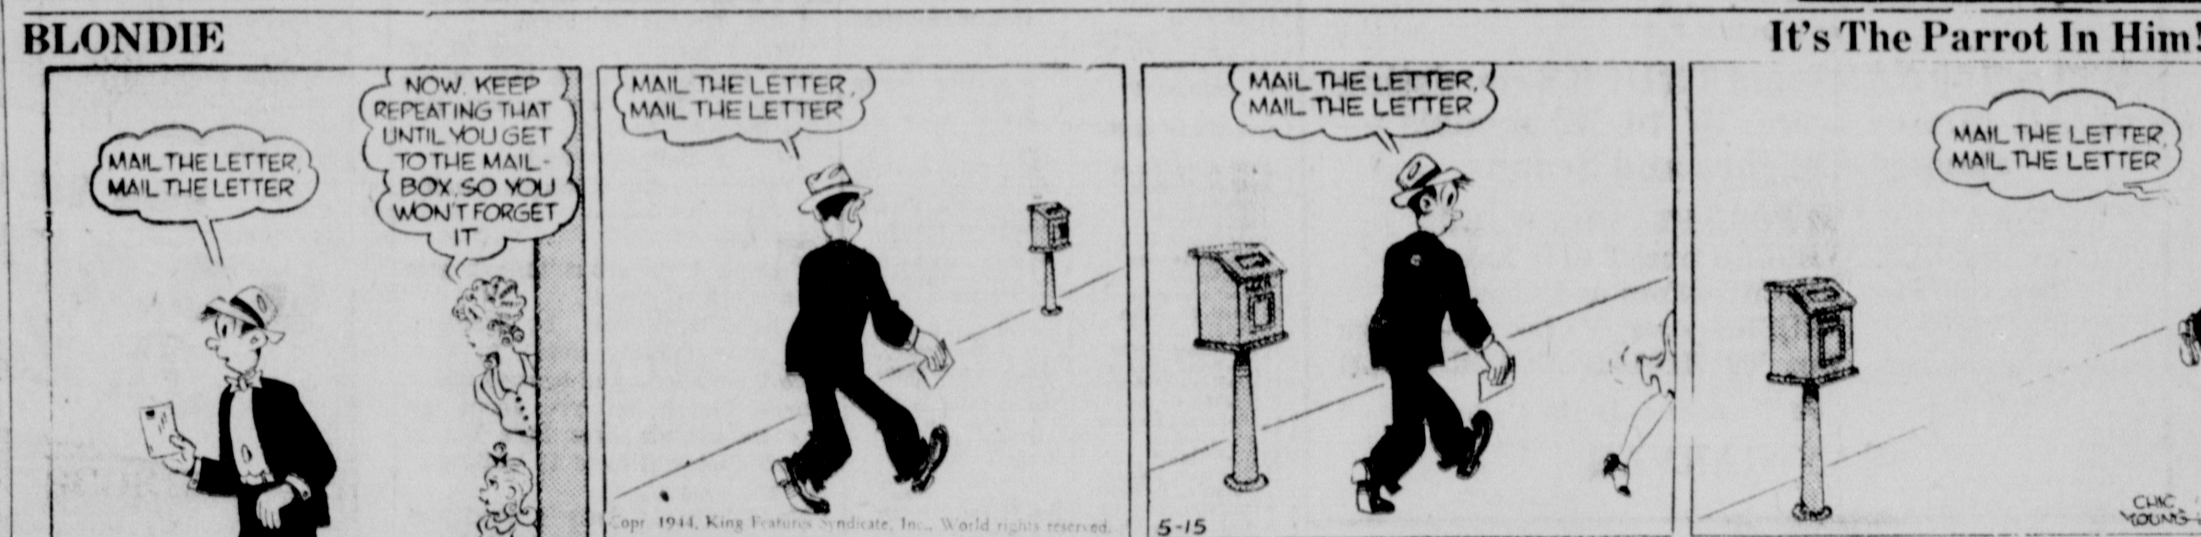

"Boy, oh boy, that cop's certainly playing right into my hands," mused Cora complacently as she trudged along. "Here's where I upset his apple cart!"

DESCRIBE NEW CARGO PLANES FOR NAVY USE

Philadelphia, May 15 (AP)—A new welded stainless steel cargo plane, the Conestoga, is in full production at the Edward G. Budd manufacturing company plant, the Navy announced today.

The two-engine, 68-foot aircraft with an unswept after-body giving it the appearance of a flying whale, is the first plane in which welded stainless steel has been used to a large extent, the Navy said.

New Wing Feature

Doors on opposite sides of the fuselage permit launching of paratroops and supplies simultaneously from both sides in contrast to conventional one-door transports.

The cargo compartment, 25 feet long, eight feet wide and eight feet high, is made possible by a unique manner of attaching the wing to the fuselage without passing the wing through the fuselage in the customary fashion.

The floor of the cargo compartment remains level both on the ground and in flight as the plane is equipped with a tricycle landing gear.

Room For Ambulance, Jeep

The ship is capable of carrying 10,400 pounds over a range of 650 miles, but its maximum range can be increased to 3,500 miles with auxiliary fuel tanks.

Two 710-horsepower engines give it a cruising speed of 165 miles per hour. Total weight fully loaded is 33,800 pounds.

The Conestoga can be converted to troop transport or ambulance use, and an ambulance and jeep both can be carried inside.

RADIO PROGRAMS

New York, May 15 (AP)—More and more voluminous grows the comment in the prevailing television controversy. It has become almost as vociferous as a political debate, with the division as sharp, if not more so.

Another added voice is that of Dorman Israel, vice president of Emerson radio. He opposed the position of CBS which has contented that television should not have a full postwar reintroduction until there can be radical improvement, including the incorporation of color.

He insisted that "the industry and the public had everything to gain and nothing to lose by the granting of postwar commercial television licenses under prevailing specifications."

STATE GUARD TO TRAIN IN JUNE

Harrisburg, May 15 (AP)—Pennsylvania's 5,000 state guardsmen will march on the Indiantown Gap military post on June 24 for an eight-day summer encampment according to tentative plans.

"We haven't approved final arrangements yet," Adjutant General Robert M. Vall declared today, "but we are counting on having the entire personnel of the guard at camp at one time."

"If we can't get the space, the guardsmen will have to come by units—eight days for each of the five regiments."

General Vall said the men will be put through "paces similar to those of last year," when three regiments of the guard each stayed one week at the Gap.

"They'll be in army uniforms this year," he added, explaining that the federal government had equipped the guardsmen with khaki outfits, including helmets. Previously, the state guard wore uniforms supplied by the state.

In addition to the five regiments, General Vall said three troops of cavalry and three battalions of engineers—two from Philadelphia and one from Pittsburgh—would be at the camp.

A special training camp will be held at Valley Forge military academy June 17 through June 22 for the guard's 300 officers. Brig. Gen. Milton G. Baker, guard commander, is superintendent of the academy.

Dining Car Pierced By Shell Fragments

Charles Farrington, railroad employee, is shown examining several of more than a score of holes that were caused when an Army shell exploded, sending fragments through the dining car of a north-bound train near Santa Maria, Calif. Two railroad employees were wounded. (AP Wirephoto.)

London, May 15 (AP)—Nazi propagandists, thumping their chests in new displays of defiance as the day of the Allies' western invasion draws nearer, had an assist today from Premier General Hideki Tojo, who told the Japanese the German armed forces are "confident and impatient" as they await the expected assault.

The British, meanwhile, addressing the peoples of occupied Europe in 24 languages in a radio broadcast, asked them to move immediately from the vicinity of important railway and industrial installations—prime targets in the pre-invasion hammering of Fortresses Europe.

In a friendly but firm tone, a BBC speaker said "our pilots realize that the lives and homes of our friends are at stake. They therefore exercise the greatest possible care, but the scale of these attacks inevitably will add to the sufferings which you—our staunch friends—have so courageously endured in this war."

"We know the extreme difficulty of evacuation at the present moment. Nevertheless, we ask you most urgently to take every step possible to move away from the vicinity of all important railway and industrial installations."

OKLAHOMA, NEW JERSEY VOTES TO BE FOR FDR

By JACK BELL
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

With Oklahoma Democrats leading off today in the expected selection of 22 convention delegates favoring a fourth term, voters in California and New Jersey primaries will put the final seal of approval tomorrow on a first ballot nomination for President Roosevelt.

To clinch matters even further, Delaware and Montana Democrats will name small delegations tomorrow which leaders predict will be for the President. The state committee has recommended that Delaware's votes be instructed for a fourth term and Montana leaders predict the same procedure for that state's 10 votes.

More Strength For FDR

Washington added 18 to the Roosevelt column over the weekend and by Tuesday its total is due to stand at 677 delegate votes pledged and claimed as against 589 needed to nominate.

In the California primaries, a 52-vote slate favoring the renomination of Mr. Roosevelt and of Vice President Wallace will be chosen. Republicans will pick 50 delegates nominally pledged to Gov. Earl Warren, the GOP convention keynote, as a favorite son.

New Jersey Democrats will elect delegates to cast 34 votes, with a fourth term slate selected by Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City and his aides opposed by only four unpledged district delegate candidates. New Jersey Republicans will elect 35 delegates, with party leaders backing an unopposed group that is opposed by 13 candidates openly favoring the nomination of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

To "Push For Dewey"

Gov. Walter E. Edge said the unpledged slate was "going to push" for Dewey's nomination.

Montana Republican leaders also favor an unopposed delegation

WARD LEADER IS MADE DEFENDANT IN ASSAULT CASE

Philadelphia, May 15 (AP)—Raphael Kurtz, Democratic ward leader and director of the investigation bureau of the inheritance tax division of the state treasury department, was scheduled for a magistrate's hearing today after his arrest on charges of aggravated assault and battery against another state official at the Jefferson Day dinner last Tuesday.

Victim of the alleged assault is James B. McFadden, executive director of the state treasury, who has been in a critical condition in Doctors' hospital since he suffered a fractured skull the night of the Democrats' $25-a-plate dinner.

Dr. Arthur P. Keegan, chief police surgeon, and member of the hospital staff, said hospital history of the case indicates the injury was caused by a fall.

George Richardson, inspector of detectives, ordered an investigation shortly after the accident occurred. After trying unsuccessfully to talk to McFadden, Sgt. Charles Brown obtained a warrant "on information and belief" which he served on Kurtz yesterday.

Kurtz, who was questioned for more than three hours, made no statement.

CHILD DIES OF BURNS

Pittsburgh, May 15 (AP)—Five-year-old Howard Diable, of Pitsburgh, died in West Penn hospital yesterday of burns suffered when his cowboy suit ignited from a bonfire while he and other boys were playing "follow-the-leader."

of 8 from that state, with Dewey and Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio showing strength among the candidates.

California's primary nominations for the senate seat now held by Democrat Sheridan Downey and for 23 members of the house of representatives may give some line on the relative strength of the two major parties in that state. Cross filing is the rule there, so the candidates are entered on all tickets. The last time he ran, Senator Hiram Johnson (R) won five party nominations and was unopposed in the general election.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

I have been receiving the Gettysburg Times—pretty—regularly—now and I sure do enjoy reading it very much. Thanks an awful lot and keep them coming.

A few days ago I had liberty so I thought I would go to the nearest town and see what was cooking. While in this town I went to the American Red Cross where most of the boys find it a very comfortable place to go. They have everything there from a moving picture, to a bath tub. It is really a nice little town, about the size of Hanover. It was on Saturday afternoon that I went to this town, and it sure did remind me of Gettysburg on Saturday nights because it was so crowded. The only thing different was that there are no lights after the sun goes down. It really seems funny to have a blackout every night. As a matter of fact we are blacked out every night from sunset to sunrise.

Going back to the Red Cross, I happened to get hold of the servicemen's album and I saw the names of three boys that are stationed within fifty miles of me from Gettysburg. They are: Pvt. Eugene Miller, Cpl. Fred Taylor and Pvt. Charles Frideringer. I don't suppose I will ever get the chance to see them.

On Wednesday, May 3, we are going to have a visitor at our base here in England. Guess who? None other than Staff Sgt. Joe Louis, the "Brown Bomber." I suppose I will have to see him because I may never get another chance. He is going to fight a few rounds with his buddy 1st Sgt. George Nicholson.

Well, I guess I better close for tonight and go dig up a spot of tea someplace. Keep 'em coming. So long friends. Cheerio.

A Faithful Reader
S. 2-c Joseph Bosak

Dear Sir:

I think it is about time I give an account of myself.

I have been here in England over nine months now. In that time I have seen and learned much. Should like to tell you about the way we operate over here but of course that will have to wait until the war is over.

No doubt you have a good idea from the way we are hitting the enemy from the air as to how hard we are all working. We don't mind the hard work and the long hours, our main object is to end this war as quickly as possible.

Ran into Bob Wisler over here. He is stationed only a short distance from me. It sure was swell seeing someone from the old home town. We are all anxious to get back.

Regards to all.

Sincerely,
SGT. HAROLD RUMMEL.

Agents Seize 500 Cases Illegal Brew

Philadelphia, May 15 (AP)—More than 500 cases of choice brands of Scotch, brandy, wines and cordials remained unclaimed today, 24 hours after agents of a federal alcohol tax unit raided a Philadelphia skating rink.

To get the whisky the claimant must pay the floor tax (amount undetermined) plus approximately $20,000 in penalties.

Otherwise—

"It probably will wind up in government hospitals as medicinal whisky," a spokesman for the tax unit said.

Legal value of the liquor found in the skating rink (which the rink does not claim) is approximately $35,000, agents said, and would probably bring $75,000 in illegal traffic.

What's all this about tires?

WHO CAN BUY THEM?

HOW GOOD ARE SYNTHETICS?

WHERE CAN WE BUY THEM?

...The Office of Price Administration has recently extended rationing regulations to make all "B" and "C" gas ration card holders eligible for Grade 1 top quality synthetic tires. This means that when the present tires of these card holders can no longer be recapped, they are eligible to buy the new U.S. Royal DeLuxe. "A" card holders are eligible for Grade 3 tires... used tires, recaps, "war" tires and seconds.

...All synthetic tires are far better than even the most optimistic tire men thought possible. From all over the country reports from car owners are pouring in that the new U.S. Royal DeLuxe is turning in performance even beyond expectations. Backed by years of work in the pioneering of synthetics, and built by craftsmen who have learned how to use every ounce of materials to give the greatest possible service, the U.S. Royal DeLuxe is the best tire buy on the market today.

...If you have a Grade One Tire Certificate, you can buy the new U.S. Royal DeLuxe where you see the familiar U.S. Tire sign. If your U.S. Tire Dealer does not have your size in stock, be patient. All popular sizes are now rolling out of the giant U.S. factories in increasing quantity. Your Dealer will take care of you as soon as stocks are available.

THE NEW U.S. ROYAL DeLuxe

MAKE YOUR NEXT TIRES U.S. ROYAL DeLuxe

The makers of America's pre-war tire quality leader, the U.S. Royal Master, are building into the new U.S. Royal DeLuxe all the skill and experience, the extra mileage, safety and dependability that have made Royals the quality leaders for years. When you are eligible for new tires, be sure you get the best. Go to the dealer with the familiar U.S. Tire sign and get U.S. Royal DeLuxe... there is no better tire made!

Where you see the U. S. Tire sign, you will find a local, independent business built on experience, knowledge, skilled service and products of quality.

Pair Killed As They Repair Tire

Butler, Pa., May 15 (AP)—A father and son were killed instantly today when struck by a hit and run driver on U. S. Route 12, accident, Butler county Coroner one mile south of the Butler county line.

Paul Frederick Johnson, 38, and his son, Paul William, 16, both of Evans City, were changing a tire on their car at the time of the accident, Butler county Coroner Charles Dengler reported.

WPB Stops Work On Unauthorized Houses

Cleveland, May 15 (AP)—E. H. Cole, regional war production board compliance chief, today announced issuance of a consent order, agreed to by Leroy A. Kohler, of Chambersburg, Pa., and officials of the WPB.

Under the order, Kohler is prohibited from doing further work on construction of four houses, located on Wilson and Colbrook avenues in Chambersburg. Kohler started construction of the homes in August, 1943, without authorization and in violation of wartime regulations, Cole said.

Bloomers, introduced in America in 1949, were named after Mrs. Amelia Jenks Bloomer.

DESCRIBE NEW CARGO PLANES FOR NAVY USE

Philadelphia, May 15 (AP)—A new welded stainless steel cargo plane, the Conestoga, is in full production at the Edward G. Budd manufacturing company plant, the Navy announced today.

The two-engine, 68-foot aircraft with an unswept after-body giving it the appearance of a flying whale, is the first plane in which welded stainless steel has been used to a large extent, the Navy said.

New Wing Feature
Doors on opposite sides of the fuselage permit launching of paratroops and supplies simultaneously from both sides in contrast to conventional one-door transports.

The cargo compartment, 25 feet long, eight feet wide and eight feet high, is made possible by a unique manner of attaching the wing to the fuselage without passing the wing through the fuselage in the customary fashion.

The floor of the cargo compartment remains level both on the ground and in flight as the plane is equipped with a tricycle landing gear.

Room For Ambulance, Jeep
The ship is capable of carrying 10,400 pounds over a range of 650 miles, but its maximum range can be increased to 3,500 miles with auxiliary fuel tanks.

Two 710-horsepower engines give it a cruising speed of 165 miles per hour. Total weight fully loaded is 33,800 pounds.

The Conestoga can be converted to troop transport or ambulance use, and an ambulance and jeep both can be carried inside.

RAD PROGRAMS

New York, May 15 (AP)—More and more voluminous grows the comment in the prevailing television controversy. It has become almost as vociferous as a political debate, with the division as sharp, if not more so.

Another added voice is that of Dorman Israel, vice president of Emerson radio. He opposed the position of CBS which has contented that television should not have a full postwar reintroduction until there can be radical improvement, including the incorporation of color.

He insisted that "the industry and the public had everything to gain and nothing to lose by the granting of postwar commercial television licenses under prevailing specifications."
